How to Obtain an Absentee Ballot:

Any registered voter who cannot vote in person may apply directly to his or her county auditor or department of elections for an absentee ballot. Any signed request containing the necessary information will be honored. For your convenience, an application is reproduced below. The addresses of the auditors or departments of election are also listed below. In order to be certain that the voters' application is authentic, the election laws require that the signature on the application be verified by comparison with the signature on the voter's permanent registration record. For this reason, if a husband and wife both wish to vote by absentee ballot, separate, signed requests should be submitted. An additional copy of this application form is printed in the inside back cover of this pamphlet. In order to be counted, an absentee ballot must be voted and postmarked no later than the day of the election. For this reason, sufficient time must be allowed for an exchange of correspondence with the county auditor or department of elections.

1978 Official Voters and Candidates Pamphlet

On November 7, you will have the opportunity to vote on a statewide initiative measure and on federal, state, and local offices. This voters' and candidates' pamphlet is sent to you and all other residents of Washington State to assist you in making informed decisions on those measures and candidates which will appear on the ballot statewide.

The first section of the pamphlet contains the official ballot title and explanatory statement for the initiative as prepared by the Attorney General. Statements "for" and "against" and rebuttal statements for each argument have been prepared by both the proponents and opponents of this measure, as prescribed by law. The second section of the pamphlet contains the statements and photographs of candidates for federal, state, and legislative office. This section of the pamphlet is divided into seven geographic editions for the convenience of publication.

As Secretary of State of the State of Washington, I certify that the text of each proposed measure, ballot title, explanatory statement, statement for and against, rebuttal statement and candidate's statement which appears in the pamphlet is a true and correct copy of the original document filed in my office. Witness my hand and the seal of the State of Washington.

Initiative Measure 350

TO THE PEOPLE

Official Ballot Title:

Shall public educational authorities be prohibited from assigning students to other than the nearest or next-nearest school with limited exceptions?

The Law as it now exists:

Under existing law, school districts have broad control over matters that affect the assignment of students to schools.

Each school district board of directors has the authority to adopt reasonable regulations which establish attendance areas, the grades to be offered at a given school, and otherwise directly or indirectly determine which schools within the district students shall attend.

Statement for

Over 180,000 citizens from around the state signed Initiative petitions to enable you to decide whether forced school busing is either wise or necessary.

350 PROTECTS LOCAL CONTROL OF SCHOOLS

Initiative 350 returns the most basic decision in education (i.e., where a child is to be educated) to the parent. 350 keeps local parental control of schools from being subverted by federal bureaucrats and promoters of forced busing.

Initiative 350 ensures that smaller school districts and rural school districts will not have their transportation funds reduced to pay for forced busing in Washington cities.

350 PRESERVES LOCAL NEIGHBORHOOD SCHOOLS

Initiative 350 guarantees children the right to attend the school nearest or next nearest their home. It is carefully worded so as to permit exceptions (such as special education of the handicapped student, health or safety hazards, physical barriers, unsafe conditions or overcrowding). Current essential busing in rural areas, for example, would not be affected. 350 permits the voluntary attendance of students in open enrollment or magnet programs, also.

350 SAVES TAX DOLLARS

Voters can prevent millions of tax dollars from being wasted this school year on forced busing. Those dollars could be spent on better classroom education. Children are not being taught the basics while they are unnecessarily riding a bus across town (past the school nearest their home).

350 IS EXERCISING YOUR LEGAL AND CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO CHOOSE

You have the choice between bureaucratic control and common sense. Forced busing in our state has not been ordered by the Courts . . . BUT is another product of pressure by the pro-busing lobby on local administrators. Exercise your freedom of choice and VOTE "YES" ON INITIATIVE 350.

Rebuttal of Statement against

Initiative 350 keeps local, neighborhood schools from coming under the control of bureaucratic busing planners. The opponents' argument avoids the real issue, i.e., the value of forced school busing. Busing children away from the school nearest their home does not make common sense. Forced busing nonsense is financed by state taxes. Your tax dollars would pay for cross-city busing. Initiative 350 is carefully written to return local control of schools to parents (where it belongs).

Voters' Pamphlet Statement Prepared by:

HUBERT F. DONOHUE, State Senator; JIM MATSON, State Senator; WILLIAM M. POLK, State Representative.

Advisory Committee: ORVILLE L. BARNES, Member, State Board of Education; J. DORM BRAMAN, former Mayor, City of Seattle; WILLIAM L. WILKINS, retired Judge, King County Superior Court; ROBERT O. DORSE, President, Citizens for Voluntary Integration Committee (CIVIC).

The effect of Initiative 350, if approved into Law:

Initiative Measure 350, if approved, would limit the control of school officials over the assignment of students to particular schools.

This initiative would prohibit school officials from either directly or indirectly requiring a student to attend a school other than the school which is geographically the nearest or next-nearest the student's residence within the school district and which offers the course of study pursued by the student. The types of "indirect" action that would be prohibited if the action would prevent a student from attending his or her nearest or next-nearest school include, but are not limited to, plans involving: (1) The redefining of attendance zones; (2) feeder schools; (3) the reorganization of the grade structure of the schools; (4) the pairing of schools; (5) the merging of schools; (6) the clustering of schools; or (7) any other combination of grade restructuring, pairing, merging or clustering.

This initiative would allow school officials to require a student to attend a school other than the school nearest or next-nearest the student's residence only in the following instances: (1) If a student requires special education, care or guidance; (2) if there are health or safety hazards or physical barriers or obstacles between the student's residence and the nearest or next-nearest school; or (3) if the nearest or next-nearest school is unfit or inadequate because of overcrowding, unsafe conditions or lack of physical facilities. If a student is assigned to a school other than the school nearest or next-nearest the student's residence because of one or more of these reasons, the assignment must be to the next geographically nearest school within the school district with the necessary courses and facilities.

This initiative does not affect the right of a student voluntarily to attend a school other than the school nearest or next-nearest the student's residence or the right of school districts to close school facilities.

NOTE: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by state law. The complete text of Initiative Measure 350 begins on page 6.

Statement against

INITIATIVE 350 WOULD INTERFERE WITH EFFICIENT LOCAL CONTROL OF EDUCATION

350 would hamper local management in all of the state's school districts by taking away the authority of locally elected school boards to assign students in an educationally and economically sound manner. It would disrupt schools in the middle of this school year.

350 prohibits assignment of students outside their district; thus, it would restrict interdistrict cooperative programs.

350 would in some cases prohibit changing the grades offered in particular schools, such as converting some three-year to four-year high schools. It would prohibit most disciplinary transfers and the redrawing of school boundary lines to make efficient use of buildings. It would mean costly interference with location of special education programs. Because it is so poorly drafted, 350 would trigger costly court battles, interfere with school operation, and would present many implementation problems.

350 WOULD CAUSE SEGREGATION AND FEDERAL COURT INTERFERENCE JUST TO SOLVE A SEATTLE PROBLEM

350 was specifically written to rescind Seattle's locally developed desegregation plan.

Applying 350 to Seattle, Tacoma, Pasco, and other desegregated school districts would significantly increase racial segregation. This resegregation of schools could easily result in the initiative being found unconstitutional. This would mean that desegregation plans in Seattle and elsewhere would continue but the rest of the state would still be saddled with the initiative.

350 litigation could lead to court ordered busing between Seattle and surrounding districts, as well as to court imposed costs to the State.

The best way to avoid interference with local control of your own school policies and the possibility of court ordered busing is to vote no on 350.

Rebuttal of Statement for

Initiative 350 threatens every school district. 350 restricts all school districts' power of pupil assignment, severely damaging local control. 350 could require massive school closures, and increased, not decreased, mandatory busing. By restricting local options, 350 would increase, not decrease, bureaucratic control. 350 would cause extensive and expensive court battles which would burden Washington taxpayers. To save neighborhood schools, keep costs down, and prevent elaborate court-ordered busing plans, vote NO on 350.

Advisory Committee: DR. FRANK B. BROUILLET, Superintendent of Public Instruction; CAROL COE, President, Washington Education Association; DR. GEORGE T. DANIEL, President, Washington Association of School Administrators; DAVID J. WHITMORE, President, Washington State School Directors' Association; WALTER H. LEWIS, State Board of Education.

(1) If a student requires special education, care or guidance, he may be assigned and transported to the school offering courses and facilities for such special education, care or guidance;

THE OFFICE OF PRECINCT COMMITTEEMAN

In addition to the various state and county offices which will appear upon the general election ballot, most voters will have the opportunity to vote for the office of "precinct committeeman". At the 1977 session of the state legislature, the laws governing the official candidates' pamphlet were amended to provide for the inclusion of this description of the office of precinct committeeman and the duties and responsibilities of persons elected to that office.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

State law (RCW 29.42.040) provides that any person who is a registered voter and a member of a major political party may become a candidate for the office of precinct committeeman by filing a declaration of candidacy and paying a one dollar filing fee to the county auditor. Since voters do not register by political party in Washington, a candidate declares himself or herself to be a Democrat or a Republican at the time he or she files for the office. The filing period for the office of precinct committeeman begins at the same time as the filing period for other partisan offices (the last Monday in July in even-numbered years), and lasts for three weeks, ending on the third Friday following that date.

ELECTION OF PRECINCT COMMITTEEMEN

Candidates for precinct committeeman do not appear on the primary ballot but rather are placed directly on the general election ballot, and the candidate receiving the most votes in his or her precinct for each political party is declared elected. State law (RCW 29.42.050) does provide, however, that to be declared elected, a candidate must receive at least ten percent (10%) of the number of votes cast for the candidate of his or her party receiving the greatest number of votes in that precinct.

TERM OF OFFICE AND VACANCIES

The term of office for anyone elected to the office of precinct committeeman is two years, and commences upon the official canvass of election returns by the county canvassing board. Should a vacancy occur in the office (caused by death, disqualification, resignation, or failure to elect), the usual process is for the chairman of the party central committee to fill the vacancy by appointment. Appointments to fill vacancies cannot be made between the state general election and the organization meeting of the county central committee, which must be held prior to the second Saturday in January following the election of precinct committeemen.

DUTIES OF PRECINCT COMMITTEEMEN AS MEMBERS OF THE COUNTY AND STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEES

1. Each precinct committeeman is a member of the county central committee. The county central committee has the authority to fill vacancies on the party ticket for partisan county offices and for legislative offices in districts entirely within that county when no candidate files for such a position or when a candidate or nominee dies or is disqualified leaving no candidate of that party for such an office; they may also nominate persons for appointment to these offices if an incumbent of that party resigns.

2. The state central committee has the authority under state law (RCW 29.42.020) to:
  - Call caucuses and conventions.
  - Provide for the election of delegates to national nominating conventions.
  - Fill vacancies on the party ticket for any federal, state or legislative office which encompasses more than one county.
  - Nominate persons to fill vacancies in state or legislative offices caused by resignation or death of an incumbent of that party.
  - Provide for the nomination of presidential electors.
  - Perform other functions inherent in such an organization.

NON-STATUTORY DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF PRECINCT COMMITTEEMEN

Specific duties and responsibilities of a precinct committeeman are usually determined by either the county or state central committees. The following duties are commonly assigned to precinct committeemen by their party organization:

- Keep informed on current issues and candidates, study the party platform.
- Attend meetings of county committees and actively participate in fund-raising activities.
- Obtain lists of registered voters from the County Auditor's office.
- Canvass the precinct and become acquainted with the voters residing therein.
- Establish a record of eligible voters and party members within the precinct.
- Encourage voter registration within the precinct.
- Distribute party election materials during election campaigns.
- Recommend party members to work as precinct election officers.
- Encourage voters to get out and vote on election day.
- Encourage the use of absentee ballots, when the need arises.
- Hold precinct caucuses at certain selected times for the purpose of adopting resolutions and selecting delegates to the county conventions.

Individuals who are interested in serving as precinct committeemen should contact the chairman of the county central committee of their party or the state committee office of that party. Their addresses are as follows:

Joel
PRITCHARD
Republican

Congressman Joel Pritchard has worked for six years in the house of Representatives representing all the people in the First Congressional District. His experience in the House adds significantly to his ability to represent the people of his District.

He is one of the two U.S. Congressmen named to the National Commission on Neighborhoods, is the ranking minority member of the Oceanography Subcommittee, Chairman of the House Wednesday Group, a member of the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee, and the Coast Guard and Navigation Subcommittee.

While moving steadily into Congressional leadership positions, he has not lost touch with the people of his district. Pritchard's record is built on effective communications with citizens at home. At least once every three weeks, Congressman Pritchard comes home to the First District, holding informal meetings with citizens. He holds "District Day" meetings in every neighborhood in the district to meet with any citizen who wishes to talk with him.

He has done more than give lip-service to the problems of inflation. He has co-sponsored a bill which calls for a substantial tax cut over a three-year period. In other areas of vital interest to his district, he helped lead the fight in the House to enact the 200-mile fisheries limit. He co-sponsored the Tanker Safety Act, tightening Coast Guard supervision of oil tankers, and he has consistently voted to hold down government spending.

Joel Pritchard believes in the accountability of his office. He has opened all of his campaign and personal finances to the public. He accepts no contributions of any kind from any special interest groups, corporations, labor unions or political action committees. His only obligation is to the voters of the First District.

Janice NIEMI
Democrat

Janice Niemi can make the 1st District count in Congress. A Democrat, Janice Niemi has the sensitivity, practical experience and majority party affiliation necessary to solve the problems of our urban district. Good voting attendance and staying in touch with citizens are important for a Representative, but Janice Niemi can do more.

Twice elected King County Superior Court Judge, Janice Niemi knows the legal system. She advocates prompt justice and guaranteed equal rights. She will produce clear legislation that won't require definition in the courts.

Janice Niemi believes government social programs should equip people to support themselves. She is committed to seeing that health care costs don't drive senior citizens into tax-supported institutions. She favors a national health insurance program.

Government seems to aid everyone except middle-income taxpayers. Janice Niemi wants action to slow inflation and ease the economic bind on families of average means. She wants to assure the survival of small businesses and guard consumers against the abuses of corporate giants. Janice Niemi will take a hard look at what our tax dollars are buying and vote for elimination of costly, ineffective federal programs.

A wife and mother of two grown children, Janice Niemi has successfully combined a full family life, a legal career and community involvement. She understands neighborhood issues.

Janice Niemi has spent her life working with people, making tough decisions and getting results. We need Janice Niemi's sound judgment and straightforward approach in Congress.

John H.
ADDISON
Libertarian

Government is the problem, not the solution!

Governments have a terrible record: slavery, war, inflation, and depression. In contrast, when individuals have been free to control their own lives, times are stable and prosperous. American history has followed such a course. Until the 20th century, there was a strong popular sentiment for individual liberty. The "no-government men" attacked slavery, government regulation and foreign entanglements. Unfortunately, the political commitment to freedom declined, as big businesses and power-hungry politicians united to push for domestic and foreign interventionism.

We now face the consequences of these disastrous policies: four wars in fifty years, crippling taxation, and simultaneous inflation and depression. With our tax money, bureaucrats control what we read, write, eat or drink and tell us how to conduct our business and pleasure. Thousands of small firms have been driven to bankruptcy by irrational regulations, while favored businesses are awarded government guarantees, subsidies, and bailouts. Inflation is fueled by government spending more money than it confiscates—we always get stuck with the bill. After 42% of our income goes to taxes and over $2500 per household pays for regulations, what's left of our money loses value to double-digit inflation.

Fortunately, the tide is turning. The tax revolt is the start of people saying "No" to the injustices of big government. Libertarians are leading the drive to roll back taxes, controls and special interest politics. Standing solidly on the principle that individuals are the sole owners of their lives, we advocate a return to the ideals that sparked the first libertarian revolution in 1776: a consistent stand for civil liberties, a truly free-market economy, and a non-interventionist foreign policy. For those of you who want neither to rule nor be ruled, vote for your freedom; vote Libertarian!

John Nance
GARNER
Republican

As a small businessman with his own independent insurance agency in Everett, John Nance Garner is no stranger to hard work — the kind of hard work it will take to be an effective Congressman.

Born and raised on a small Washington farm, he started his working career at the age of 13 as a janitor and messenger. He also became an Eagle Scout.

In college, John majored in Business Administration and Communications at Eastern Washington University.

Following graduation, John received his commission in the U.S. Army. He continues to serve in the Army Active Reserve as a Lieutenant Colonel and is President of the Snohomish County Reserve Officers Association.

Now 44, John is active in community and church affairs. He is a member of the National Congressional Advisory Council and has served on the National Advisory Commission on Oceans and Atmosphere. He knows his way around Washington, D.C., and how the system works.

John Nance Garner is concerned about the size of government and the amount you have to pay for it. He is the only candidate who supports a 10-percent reduction in the number of Federal civilian personnel and a 33-percent across-the-board tax cut (the Kemp-Roth Bill).

"Inflation must be controlled if we are to improve our quality of life and the place to start is by reducing government spending," he says.

Long ago, John called on Congress to nullify the Boldt Decision and give all fishermen an equal chance to catch salmon and steelhead outside the Indian reservations.

He believes we must responsibly manage our forests to achieve a harmonious blend of land available for family recreation, timber production, and wilderness.

John Nance Garner and his wife, Marlene, a fifth-grade school teacher in Marysville, have two children, Lorelei and John, Jr.

Al
Democrat

Al Swift is a leader in his own community. He'll be a congressman for all of us. Al won several awards as Public Affairs Director for KVOS-TV in Bellingham. His wife, Paula, is a school teacher, and the Swifts have two daughters.

Al has gotten things done by working well with his neighbors. Al Swift helped revise the Bellingham City Charter, served on the Bellingham Housing Authority, and was Chairman of the Citizens Committee on the Bellingham Schools. In 1965-69, he served as chief of staff to Rep. Lloyd Meeds.

"We can cut spending, and Congress should go first," said Swift. "Congress should set an example by restraining its own salaries and expenses. After restricting itself, Congress will be in a better position to ask other people to accept the restraints in spending necessary to curb inflation." Swift's budget priorities are education, seniors, and a responsible national defense.

Al Swift favors a moratorium on the Boldt Decision until the Supreme Court acts. He feels Congress should examine all aspects of treaties.

Swift supports a tax cut and wants the income tax rates "indexed" to reflect the cost of living, rather than absolute dollars. He favors reducing capital gains taxes to stimulate new plant investment and more jobs. He opposes log exports and supports a gradual change to create more mill jobs. Swift wants Congress to accelerate research on alternative energy sources and feels the job can't be left to the energy industry.

Swift has specific plans to curb over-regulation and wants Congress to supervise agency rules before they go into effect. Al Swift is a leader who will listen to all of us and work for all of us.

Rick
BENNETT
Republican

The voting record of incumbent liberal congressman Bonker is a disgrace. He voted for foreign aid to Cuba and Vietnam; supports the giveaway of the Panama Canal; supported amnesty for draft dodgers but voted against the B-1 Bomber; believes "we must see that the Boldt decision is carried out"; is a compulsive spender; has voted against meaningful tax cuts; and according to fellow Democrat Bert Cole, "He certainly is not representing the district. He is more interested in his own beliefs and in Africa than he is in his own district." This irresponsible man should not be returned to Congress.

Rick Bennett is a successful small businessman who has sparked the imagination of people all over the country with innovative energy proposals. A popular television talk-show guest, Bennett has appeared on the Mike Douglas Show, the MacNeil-Lehrer Report, ABC's Good Morning America, NBC's Today Show, and NBC's Tomorrow Show. Rick Bennett will be just as articulate in selling Congress his vision of what America can become as he has been in creating a brand new electronics industry.

Bennett supports the Kemp-Roth 33% tax cut (which Bonker opposes), supports Jack Cunningham's bill to make the Steelhead a national game fish (which Bonker opposes), supports a strong national defense (which Bonker has voted to weaken), and would vote to impeach Andrew Young.

Rick Bennett's energy and welfare reform proposals won't cost the taxpayer a cent, yet will make us totally independent of Arab oil in 3 to 5 years, and will finally end the welfare cycle that has kept minorities in poverty and the government's hand in your pocket.

California's Proposition 13 proves the little guy can win! Send those liberals in Washington a similar message. Send Rick Bennett to Congress.

Don BONKER
Democrat

A proven record of integrity, independent-minded voting and effective hard work have marked Don Bonker's first four years in Congress. Part of the post-Watergate "new breed" of Congressmen, Don Bonker listens to his constituents and to his conscience and turns a deaf ear to the loud voices of special interests in the nation's capitol.

Since you voted to return Don Bonker to Congress in 1976, he has worked to reduce taxes, cut unemployment, eliminate government red tape, and reduce the federal budget deficit. But Don Bonker will not rest until something is done about inflation.

Don Bonker feels Proposition 13 was predictable, in view of the intolerably high property tax assessments in California, but what began as a legitimate movement has become an excuse to create more loopholes and inequities in our tax system. He remains committed to fair and honest tax relief, including a reduction in the social security payroll tax, the most regressive and fastest-growing tax of all.

Don Bonker also believes that government red tape should not inhibit our economic growth. While certain regulations are necessary, he will demand an end to government paperwork and rules which serve no real purpose.

Don Bonker will continue to listen to your concerns and to seek sensible, workable solutions. He maintains three district offices, conducts regular constituent meetings and town hall sessions, and returns to the Third District monthly. His record of helping individual citizens and small businessmen is impressive. His commitment to keeping the timber and wood products industry and our fishery resource the economic base of the Northwest is unmatched.

Don Bonker works hard for the Third District because he cares. His perseverance, integrity and dedication to the public interest make him a Representative you can be proud to have serving you.

United States Representative

Seventh Congressional District

John E. "Jack"
CUNNINGHAM
Republican

Congressman Jack Cunningham is seeking re-election to the United States Congress, representing the 7th District of Washington.

Cunningham, elected to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Brock Adams, serves on the Government Operations Committee, Select Committee on Aging and the Privacy Task Force in Congress.

The Congressman is a strong defender of free enterprise and more private sector job opportunities.

He cites inflation and taxation as the two most critical problems facing the nation and Washington State today, and has pledged to continue his efforts to stop inflation at the federal level and work to reduce excessive taxation.

Congressman Cunningham has served in both Houses of the Washington State Legislature and has a proven record of fiscal responsibility and integrity. He will continue to represent the citizens of Washington in an open, accessible and honest manner and work to keep the costs of government down.

Congressman Cunningham's strong stand against wasteful federal spending has caused great concern in government circles. His deciding vote against a multi-billion dollar financial aid to cities spending bill demonstrated his willingness to take a strong stand against make-work government spending. His vote on funding for the B-1 Bomber which would strengthen the U.S. Defense posture in the world is an example of creating real jobs in the community. The Congressman has demonstrated his ability in the state legislature to stand up against big state government and he is continuing the fight against the massive federal bureaucracy.

The three branches of government—the Executive, Legislative and Judicial—were established by our forefathers to govern our great nation, but Congressman Cunningham is concerned that a fourth branch of government has been emerging over the last twenty years. It is called the Bureaucracy and that is what he is dedicated to fight.

Mike Lowry is running for Congress because voters of the 7th District have lost their voice in Congress. They have lost their voice because Jack Cunningham, who spent one-quarter of a million dollars in out-of-state contributions, has consistently voted for wealthy special interests.

Mr. Cunningham has voted against the interests of workers, elderly, young people and consumers. He has the lowest labor rating in the Washington Congressional delegation. He received a "zero" rating from the National Council of Senior Citizens.

Cunningham's rhetoric about cutting taxes is just not consistent with his voting record. He voted to rebate money to be collected from the crude oil tax to giant oil companies instead of consumers. That would have cost consumers $2 billion per year. Cunningham voted for amendments on Social Security which increased the payroll tax burden on middle income people. And Cunningham voted to give government subsidies to giant corporate farms. Those kind of votes don't do anything to lessen pressures on family budgets.

By contrast, Mike Lowry, as a King County Councilman, has voted to strengthen basic services for senior citizens, police and fire protection, and emergency services like Medic-1. Mike wants taxpayers to receive the full benefit of their dollars. He has accomplished these goals within the limits of a balanced budget.

Mike has ten years of experience at the state and county level, where government is closest to the people. Mike understands the problems facing taxpayers and that is why he has proposed to rollback excessive Social Security taxes in a way that would guarantee health and retirement benefits for the elderly.

Mike Lowry's extensive governmental finance and budget experience is needed in Congress to reduce the inflationary, federal budget deficit.

Let's get our voice back in Congress. Let's elect Mike Lowry.

State Supreme Court

State of Washington

William H.
WILLIAMS
Nonpartisan

Each year, the responsibilities of the state's highest Court increase. Therefore, 'experience . . . where it counts' is the issue that is most important when you make your selection of Supreme Court Justice. Judge Williams, a man of 56, has served 20 years as Superior Court Judge. In addition, he has twice been Justice Pro Tem of the Supreme Court, served as Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for Spokane County, as Juvenile Court Judge, and in private practice of law.

Judge Williams enjoys the endorsement of many attorneys on both sides of the state, as well as that of Frank Hale and Robert Hunter, both retired Supreme Court Justices and co-chairmen of his committee. He was elected by his fellow judges and served as president of the Washington State Judges Association, and he now is chairman of the Judicial Ethics and Grievance Committee.

During WW II, Williams piloted a B24 bomber on 28 combat missions over Europe. A Spokane native, he is a graduate of the University of Idaho and received his law degree from Gonzaga University. Married and the father of five children, Williams has been active in the law since 1951.

Holman, recognized among the state's leading lawyers and jurists, is 63 years old, married, with three children; educated in the Seattle Public Schools; graduated from Stanford, Oxford and Harvard Law School; served overseas in World War II with the state's 41st Infantry Division, and had active duty in the Korean War.

Judge Holman's experience has not been narrowly confined to the law. He has served in all three branches of government at both state and local levels, including: state representative and senator; mayor; member, Seattle's Metro Council; school director; hospital trustee; chairman, Carman Scholarship Committee. His accomplishments for public and private education are known statewide.

As first Chairman of the Public Disclosure Commission, Holman provided the essential leadership for implementing Initiative 276.

Judge Holman's 37 years in the legal profession include: membership on the Senate Judiciary Committee; American, Washington State and King County Bar Associations; and the American Judicature Society. Currently, he serves on the State Judicial Council and represents our state on the national Uniform Law Commission. Appointed Superior Court Judge for King County in 1973, he was twice re-elected without opposition, and is a graduate of the National College for the State Judiciary.

Arthur E.
PIEHLER
Nonpartisan

Rated "Well Qualified," after written and oral interviews, by the Seattle-King County Bar Association's Judicial Evaluation Committee. Seattle-King County Bar poll vote – Piehler 845; Nuxoll 177 and Pekelis 285.

Piehler has been an active trial attorney for over 25 years, trying cases in many fields of law. His skills and experience have often led to his being retained by attorneys to try their cases; "ask your lawyer."

Piehler is the only candidate with substantial trial experience in many fields of the law. He feels lack of experience leads to delay and errors, resulting in added expense to taxpayers and litigants.

He has lectured and written on subjects concerning trial and appellate practice for many years and in many states.

He would be a fair but firm trial judge, believing that a primary consideration in criminal sentencing is the protection of society.

He is endorsed by the Seattle Police Officers Guild, Seattle-King County Teamsters Unions, Seattle-King County Labor Council C.O.P.E., Washington Taxpayers Association and The United Republicans of Washington. He is a member of Seattle-King County Bar Association, Washington State Bar Association, Washington State Trial Lawyers Association, and American Trial Lawyers Association.

Rosselle
PEKELIS
Nonpartisan

Rosselle Higgins Pekelis, Seattle attorney and mother of three teenagers, has a broad range of experience. She worked for a Prosecuting Attorney's office and the Seattle Public Defender before entering private practice in 1974. Presently at the firm of Helsell, Fetterman, Martin, Todd and Hokanson, her practice embraces the legal problems of the family including marriage and separation contracts, divorce, adoption and juvenile cases, as well as employment problems and personal injury suits.

Rosselle Pekelis is a member of the Washington Women Lawyers, and serves on three committees of the Washington State Bar Association and the American Bar Association.

Prior to attending law school, Rosselle Pekelis held a variety of part-time and volunteer jobs. She has been active in community service and political projects, a language teacher, a mental health therapist and a dance instructor. Her understanding of people and their problems is extensive and personal. Her common sense approach to solving those problems is combined with competence in the law.

Rosselle Pekelis believes that the courts can and must be responsive to the communities they serve. The first step towards attaining that goal is to elect hardworking, competent judges with a fresh outlook on the law.

When asked the main reason I am running, my answer must be "the state budget"! The increase between 1976-77 ($5.5 billion) and the 1978-79 (over $8 billion) budgets is more than the total budget for 1965-67 ($2 billion). Something is out of hand besides inflation! This race is a classic conflict of fiscal differences. The incumbent has a nearly perfect voting record - "yes" on most spending programs. He sponsored legislation to remove constitutional limits on state spending and permit deficit financing! With 42% of the average taxpayer's income going to government, we can't afford that anymore.

He has successfully passed legislation dealing with some of our state's toughest problems.

His major areas of legislative effectiveness cover four broad concerns: schools, revenue and taxation, constitutional reform, and protecting and enhancing the quality of life in our state. He sponsored HJR 47 dealing with excess school levies. He was prime sponsor of legislation acquiring St. Edwards (Seminary) Park, and establishing a scenic river management system. He sponsored legislation that now regulates oil and waste pollution. As a Redmond resident recently summarized: "Will Knedlik's courage gets things done."

As Chairman of the Revenue Resources Subcommittee, Will also undertook extensive research on tough state issues—such as his widely-published work on public trustland management and his articles on high government costs and fiscal reforms. The 1979 session of the legislature will be one of the most important in recent Washington history. Basic decisions on the level of spending and taxation must be made and the adequacy of many important state functions along with the taxpayers' ability to pay will weigh in the balance.

I believe that the legislature should adopt a limit on taxation similar to that in Initiative 62. Lawmakers must prioritize spending so that essentials such as education, prison reform, and assistance for the old and disabled are adequately funded. Kent
PULLEN
Republican

Having served as your state senator for the past four years, I am seeking re-election in order to continue working for solutions to problems such as a high crime rate, skyrocketing property taxes, inflation, educational funding, unemployment, and the need for honesty in government.

I was the first legislator to successfully sponsor legislation providing mandatory sentences for dangerous criminals (with all the loopholes closed). Another bill of mine (SB 2440) which was passed into law made it more difficult for the parole board to prematurely release violent felons.

Last year, when a postcard voter registration bill was rammed through the legislature (with high potential for fraud), I formed the Committee for Honest Elections, which successfully collected 75,000 signatures to get Referendum 39 on the ballot. The citizens of this state then strongly supported my position by overwhelmingly voting to reject postcard registration.

I will work to reduce the tax burden where possible through improved spending efficiency and other economies at the state level. I am especially alarmed by the recent huge increase in the property tax, which is driving many senior citizens from their homes.

Your vote will help me continue serving you in these important areas.

Mike is an active member of the Wabash Presbyterian Church and is President of the Lake Heights Community.

Land Use — Growth is inevitable but it should occur in an orderly manner so that high density housing is not planted in the middle of agricultural land.

Education — The state must bear its responsibility to provide basic education but, because no two districts are alike, it is important that local discretion be retained.

Juvenile Crime — Communities should share in the decision-making process. The Community Accountability Process, which Mike helped develop and which includes restitution to crime victims, is one program that will help all neighborhoods.

Striving to maintain the high standard of living we in the Northwest enjoy is often difficult in the face of spiraling growth, inflation, expanding government and its costs. For the past eight years, as a member of both the House of Representatives and now the Senate, I have seen the importance of getting a firm handle on the growth of state government and its expenditures. Last year, we achieved major revisions to the public employees' pension system, which provide retirees with a reasonable income while holding down costs to the state. Senior citizens, or persons on fixed incomes, have, and should continue to receive, financial reductions or exemptions to certain taxes, rates, etc. The state has made an important commitment to fully fund "basic" education while reducing dependence on local property taxes. This act is of paramount importance since it means local schools will maintain their high level of education while operating on a stabilized funding source. Through these efforts, and a continued watchdog approach to government by the Legislature, we in Washington will continue to enjoy this state and its benefits as we have in the past.

How to Obtain an Absentee Ballot:

Any registered voter who cannot vote in person may apply directly to his or her county auditor or department of elections for an absentee ballot. Any signed request containing the necessary information will be honored. For your convenience, an application is reproduced below. The addresses of the auditors or departments of election are also listed below. In order to be certain that the voters' application is authentic, the election laws require that the signature on the application be verified by comparison with the signature on the voter's permanent registration record. For this reason, if a husband and wife both wish to vote by absentee ballot, separate, signed requests should be submitted. An additional copy of this application form is printed in the inside front cover of this pamphlet. In order to be counted, an absentee ballot must be voted and postmarked no later than the day of the election. For this reason, sufficient time must be allowed for an exchange of correspondence with the county auditor or department of elections.
