We Have One New Kid and Others Still Looking

SEAMUS: is a gorgeous 5 month old Bassett Lab Mix (aka Basador) pup that is full of love and affection. He is good with other dogs, cats, and obviously all people, and he has been doing GREAT with his training. With any mixed breed, you never know what traits might come out – like getting a birthday present and not knowing what's inside! Both dog breeds are good-natured, but the Bassett can be more of a rambler with an independent attitude while the Lab is a go-getter and more people dependent. Either way, Seamus will make a wonderful addition to your home and life! (HAVA)

PATRIOT: is a beautiful, approximately 1 ½ year old Box Lab Mix. Patriot came to DOC as a puppy to be trained as a narcotics dog, but that wasn't his calling. He is very well socialized, loves attention, and as you can see right, can even be a smart aleck when told you don't want to play fetch! Yes, Patriot has a ball drive that will keep you both busy. This loving, friendly boy is looking for that special home to call his own. It will be one lucky home to get this guy! (DOC State Donated)

DRACO: at approximately 120lbs, this 5 ½ year old Mastiff Yellow Lab mix will quickly become your new best friend. Draco is a gentle giant who gets along with everything from chickens and goats, to cats and dogs. He is very laid back, easy going, and would make an outstanding new addition to your life and home. (HAVA)

Here Are the Other Three!

RILEY: is a gorgeous 2 ½ year old Husky Mix. He is an intelligent boy and full of energy. Riley will need a home with a fenced yard and a person who can give him plenty of exercise – but, he also needs a home without cats, birds, or livestock. Other dogs are not a problem. Riley loves people, is a real snuggle-bear, and has a coat so soft you'll never stop wanting to hug and pet him. (Long Beach Humane Society)

ROLO: at 1 year old, this micro-chipped, 17lbs Jack Russell/Rat Terrier Mix will steal your heart. He is full of love and kindness, and unlike many smaller dogs, doesn't have that "small dog attitude". Rolo is great with all dogs big and small, obviously people, but even cats! He is not a hyper boy, like you would expect from his mix, but Rolo is still a puppy so he'll require lots of daily exercise, socialization, and love. (Long Beach Humane Society - Oregon Friends of Shelter Animals)

HAVA's adoption coordinator reviews the applications and decides which potential adopter she feels would give the dog the best home possible. She then sets up meet/greet w/the trainer. These are usually 30 min., Fri and Sat from 12:30-1:30pm. All member of the family, including dogs, are required to attend. Afterward, both parties email her as to their decision & whether they want to move forward in the adoption.

TABASCO: is an extremely sweet 4 year old Red Heeler Mix. When he came to the program, he had some skin issues, but it was addressed and he's good to go. Tabasco may live up to his name in the red color, but not in his temperament. He is not all hot and sassy. In fact, he is fantastic with other dogs, children, and every person he meets. Tabasco knows all his commands, has a very happy soul, and due to his sweet nature, he will make someone a fantastic family dog no matter the size of the family! (PAWS of Grays Harbor)
