DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS FOR CONTRIBUTIONS TO CANDIDATES AND POLITICAL COMMITTEES

Identification of Contributions: State law (RCW 42.17.120) provides that no contribution shall be made which in any manner conceals the identity of its source or in any other manner which effects concealment. State law (RCW 42.17.060) also provides that the campaign treasurer shall prepare and file with the public disclosure commission a statement containing the name of each person contributing the funds so deposited and the amount. Those not exceeding $25 from any one person may be deposited without identifying the contributor.

State law (RCW 42.17.100) provides that any person who contributes in the aggregate amount of $100 or more during the preceding 12-month period to any political committee not domiciled in the state of Washington or not otherwise required to report shall file with the commission within 3 days after the contribution was made a report signed by the contributor disclosing his or her name and address, the date, nature, purpose, amount and recipient of such contribution, and any instructions given as to its use or disbursement.

Candidate's and Treasurer's Duty to Report: On the day the campaign treasurer is designated, each candidate or political committee shall file with the commission and the county auditor of the county in which the candidate resides (or in the case of a political committee, the county in which the campaign treasurer resides) a report of all contributions received and expenditures made in the election campaign prior to that date, as provided by state law (RCW 42.17.080). Further reports shall be made on the 7th and 21st day immediately preceding the date of the election, within 21 days after the date of a primary election and within 21 days after the date of all other elections. This will be the final report if there is no outstanding debt or obligation and the campaign fund is closed.

The campaign treasurer shall maintain books of account reflecting all contributions within 3 business days of receipt. During the 8 days immediately preceding the date of the election, the books of account shall be kept current within 1 business day and be open for public inspection for at least 2 consecutive hours Monday through Friday, excluding legal holidays, between 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. For additional information, contact the Public Disclosure Commission, 403 Evergreen Plaza, FJ-42, Olympia, WA 98504, (206) 753-1111.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CREDITS AND DEDUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions or gifts made to political parties or candidates may not be deducted as business expenses. In addition, expenses paid or incurred to take part in any political campaign on behalf of a candidate for public office are not deductible business expenses. Also, indirect political contributions, such as advertising for a political party or admission to a program with proceeds going to a political party or candidate, are not deductible as business expenses.

Presidential Election Campaign Fund Checkoff: Individuals, however, can make deductible contributions. For example, the Presidential Election Campaign Fund checkoff. This fund was established to help pay for presidential election campaigns. $1 may be taken ($2 on a joint return) from an individual's taxes to go to a general fund, not for any specific party, to meet the expenses of the 1984 presidential election. The contribution will not increase your tax or reduce your refund and may not be claimed as a partial credit for political contributions.

Political Contributions Tax Credit: A person may take a tax credit of up to $50 ($100 on a joint return) for half the political contributions he or she makes during the year. Only individuals may claim this credit. This credit may not be taken for the $1 or $2 amount checked on a return to go to the Presidential Election Campaign Fund.

A political contribution that qualifies for the credit is a contribution of money during the year to a qualified candidate for nomination or election to any federal, state or local office who announces his or her candidacy before the end of the following calendar year and uses the money to further the candidacy; a campaign committee operated exclusively to further the election of one or more candidates to public office; a national, state or local committee of a national political party; or a newsletter fund established and maintained by a person who holds, has been elected to, or is a candidate for public office. A contribution to the newsletter fund must be used by that person in preparing and circulating the newsletter.

A written receipt is required to prove contributions. Cancelled checks will in most cases meet this requirement. If a book is bought from a committee of a national political party at a price greater than the fair market value of the book, the contribution that may qualify for the credit is the difference between the sales price and the fair market value of the book. The amount paid to a political candidate or campaign committee for a ticket for a raffle, lottery or similar drawing for valuable prizes does not qualify for the credit. Contributions for political activities not directly related to a nomination or election campaign does not qualify for credit. For additional information, contact the local office of the Internal Revenue Service.

INTRODUCTION TO THE 1984 VOTER'S PAMPHLET

WASHINGTON STATE LIBRARY

A60004 707535

FELLOW WASHINGTONIANS,

On November 6, you will have the opportunity to vote for President and Vice President of the United States, on three state ballot measures and federal and state offices. I know this pamphlet will be useful in helping you make your decisions on the critical issues and candidates facing all of us this election year.

Washington, in 1914, was one of the first states in the Union to prepare a voters' pamphlet for its citizens. We remain in the vanguard of voter information. Editions of the Voters' Pamphlet are available on tape cassette, in braille, and in a Spanish language version. For additional copies of any version of the Voters' Pamphlet or other voter information, please call our Voter Information Hotline, Monday through Friday, 12 noon to 8:00 p.m., 1-800-824-VOTE!

I want to take this opportunity to thank the many Washingtonians who help with our elections — the hundreds of volunteer voter registrars, our county auditors and their staffs, the poll workers and election day volunteers, and others who work so hard to see that our elections run smoothly.

RALPH MUNRO
Secretary of State

Initiative Measure 456

TO THE PEOPLE

NOTE: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by state law. The complete text of Initiative Measure 456 is contained on page 10.

Statement for

Ten years ago, before the Boldt decision, our state's salmon season stretched from April to October. This year the season lasted only 9 days! It's clear the present management system doesn't work . . .

A NEW APPROACH IS NEEDED

The record shows there are simply too many agencies and "self-regulating" Indian tribes involved in the chaotic mismanagement of our fisheries.

The multi-million dollar pricetag for this flawed "co-management" system is passed along to the state's taxpayers, while businesses are going bankrupt in record numbers (especially marine and tourist-related industries) at a time when we need to create jobs.

THERE CANNOT BE TWO SETS OF STANDARDS

For conservation's sake, catch limits and season closures should apply equally to all! Commercial netting by Indians of the spawning stocks in our rivers, lakes, and streams must stop — no one has the right to destroy our state's renewable natural resources.

CONGRESS CAN CHANGE THIS!

456 will encourage Congress to acknowledge the severe problems inherent to the present unworkable system. Congress has acted to resolve similar problems in other states, such as Alaska and Maine.

MORE THAN FISH

This isn't an isolated, regional issue — and it involves more than fish! Congress must address questions related to property rights, water and mineral claims, timber, game, hydroelectric power . . . plus unregulated gambling, illegal fireworks, untaxed cigarette and liquor sales on Indian reservations, contrary to treaties!

Official Ballot Title:

Shall Congress be petitioned to decommercialize steelhead, and state policies respecting Indian rights and management of natural resources be enacted?

The law as it now exists:

State law prohibits the commercialization and sale of steelhead. However, that prohibition does not apply to persons who have federally-secured treaty fishing rights. All citizens are entitled under the United States Constitution to equal protection of rights, privileges and immunities which must be recognized by the state. Federally-secured Indian treaty rights must also be recognized and respected by the state.

ALL CITIZENS MUST BE TREATED EQUALLY UNDER THE LAW

The principle of equal rights, as guaranteed under the Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, is the basis of "liberty and justice for all." There cannot be two classes of citizens in America. Special rights by reason of race have no place in an open, democratic society, and actually violate United States Constitutional principles.

VOTE YES ON 456 FOR EQUAL RIGHTS AND OPPORTUNITY

Rebuttal of Statement against

456 has been endorsed by such "good government" groups as the Washington State Grange, Washington State Republican Party, Washington State Sportsmen's Council . . . plus hundreds of others. Why? Because it isn't a question of breaking treaties but, rather, interpreting them accurately and enforcing them fairly.

With 456, all citizens (including Indians) will have full access to our resources — on an equal treatment basis according to sound conservation policies! No longer would there be special privileges or burdens placed upon citizens of any ethnic group. Vote Yes!

For additional information, call (206) 885-4456.

Voters Pamphlet Statement Prepared by:

A. L. "SLIM" RASMUSSEN, State Senator; MARY MARGARET HAUGEN, State Representative; DALE WARD, Chairman, Steelhead & Salmon Protection Action for Washington Now.

Advisory Committee: CARL CROUSE, Former Regional Director, National Wildlife Federation; DON AHRENHOLTZ, Executive Vice President, Washington State Farm Bureau; REVEREND JAMES W. SHAW, Pastor, Bellevue Baptist Church; RICHARD DALE SMITH, Former Director, Port of Tacoma; DAVID A. WELTS, Attorney and Former President, Washington State Bar Association.

The effect of Initiative No. 456, if approved into law:

This initiative would petition Congress to provide as a matter of federal law that steelhead be classified as a national game fish. Such action by Congress would prohibit the commercialization and sale of steelhead by any persons.

The initiative declares it to be state policy that natural resources, including land, water, timber, fish and game should be the management responsibility of the state alone and that such responsibility shall be exercised for the purposes of conservation, enhancement and proper utilization while fully respecting private property rights.

The initiative would also declare as a matter of state law that all citizens, including treaty Indians, have equal rights. Such a declaration, however, does not change the federally-secured treaty rights.

Statement against

456 seeks to accomplish what neither the U.S. Constitution, the U.S. Congress, nor the U.S. Supreme Court has allowed in more than 100 years . . . namely, break the promises (treaties) written by the U.S. government, signed by a U.S. President, and forced upon the Indians when millions of acres of land acknowledged to be theirs were taken from them.

INITIATIVE 456 IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Treaty fishing rights are protected by the U.S. Constitution. 456's requirement of exclusive state management of our natural resources unconstitutionally usurps federal law, treaties, and international agreement.

INITIATIVE 456 IS UNFAIR

456 would unfairly take property that belongs to treaty Indians without paying for the property taken. It is no different than someone taking your home or car without paying for it.

INITIATIVE 456 IS ANTI-CONSERVATION

456 would destroy the very important and recent progress made in increasing and saving our salmon runs. This progress resulted from cooperation between our state government, sport and commercial fishermen, environmentalists, and Indian tribes.

INITIATIVE 456 IS IRRESPONSIBLE

456 would destroy the basic culture and heritage of Native Americans and break contracts (treaties) made with them by our federal government. It is so irresponsible, unfair and unconstitutional that it is opposed by both candidates for governor, the Washington Association of Churches, most daily newspapers in the state, the Washington Charter Boat Association, and other important fishing groups. 456 is opposed by Senator Dan Evans, and most of our state's U.S. congressional delegation.

A CONTRACT IS A CONTRACT

The United States entered into these treaties to gain tribal lands for early pioneers. These treaties are contracts. To break a valid contract is wrong!

VOTE "NO" ON INITIATIVE 456

Rebuttal of Statement for

Initiative 456 has become known statewide as the Condemned Initiative — Condemned by every major church denomination because it's immoral; Condemned by sports fishing organizations because it won't grow one fish; Condemned by organized labor because it won't provide jobs; Condemned by constitutional lawyers because it's unconstitutional; Condemned by republican and democratic congressmen because it's unworkable; Condemned because, if passed, it would cost non-Indian taxpayers millions upon millions of dollars!

Initiative Measure 464

TO THE PEOPLE

NOTE: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by state law. The complete text of Initiative Measure 464 is contained on page 10.

Official Ballot Title:

Shall the values of trade-ins of like kind property be excluded from the selling price for the sales tax computation?

The law as it now exists:

State and local sales and use taxes are based on the selling price of the items involved which includes the value of any trade-in as well as payments in money.

The effect of Initiative No. 464, if approved into law:

If approved, this initiative would exclude from the selling price, for sales and use tax purposes, the value of a trade-in of property of like kind to that which is being purchased. Thus, for example, when an automobile is traded in on the purchase of another automobile, the value of the trade-in automobile would be excluded from the sales and use tax computations.

Statement for

Initiative 464 is a bipartisan effort to correct and modify an existing sales tax inequity. Currently, an allowance for the trade-in value is not subtracted before computing sales tax on a purchase.

Many consumers resent having to pay sales tax on an amount that is higher than the net purchase price. To use an example, on the purchase of a $6,000 car with a $2,000 trade-in, most people feel it would be reasonable to pay sales tax on the $4,000 difference, not on the $6,000 as the current law demands.

Forty states either allow credit for trade-ins when computing sales tax, or have no sales tax at all. Of the ten states that operate the way we do now, Washington has the highest sales tax rate.

We believe that giving an allowance for the trade-in value before computing sales tax would stimulate sales and would offset any possible loss of revenue.

Initiative 464 would give a significant break to consumers by reducing the amount on which sales tax is paid by excluding the trade-in value of like-kind property from the amount taxable. "Like-kind" is defined as: car for car, tractor for tractor, appliance for appliance, part for part, etc. Initiative 464 would apply to any purchase whether it be new or used.

This is a tax modification that is fair and long overdue. We urge you to vote YES for Initiative 464.

Rebuttal of Statement against

The latest revenue projection for the next biennium is $9.9 billion, and current expenses are $8.1 billion. Washington can afford I-464!

This is not a tax preference for special interests. I-464 will help every household in the state, even do-it-yourselfers who repair their own cars. It is not limited to vehicles and luxury items.

Consumers already pay sales tax once on a trade. Paying again is a double tax.

Vote YES I-464.

For additional information, call (206) 575-1146.

Voters Pamphlet Statement Prepared by:

AL BAUER, State Senator; EUGENE PRINCE, State Representative; PAUL ZELINSKY, State Representative.

Advisory Committee: GLYN CHANDLER, State Representative; H. A. (BARNEY) GOLTZ, State Senator; GARY NELSON, State Representative; IRV NEWHOUSE, State Senator; LOIS STRATTON, State Representative.

Statement against

TAX LOOPHOLE FOR THE BIGGEST SPENDERS

This is another big tax loophole giving the most benefit to the biggest spender. The largest exemption will go to the guy who buys a luxury car and trades in frequently. The least goes to the buyer of a lower priced car who holds it longer than the present average of seven years.

HELP FOR JAPAN AND DETROIT?

This initiative is proposed in the name of economic development, principally to stimulate automobile sales. This may help Japan and Detroit, but not Washington. Even Michigan repealed its trade-in exemption this year because the loss far exceeded the gain! And any incentive to buy foreign cars only worsens our trade deficit.

WILL HIGHER EDUCATION BE CUT BY THE $50 MILLION LOSS?

This initiative will slash state revenues by $50 million in 1985-87 according to the Department of Revenue. (Local government loses another $9 million.) The higher education budget is the most vulnerable to cuts because it is not protected by the Constitution or legal mandates. That could mean reductions for community colleges, University of Washington, Washington State University, and regional universities. Cuts will threaten our newest programs designed to encourage high technology training and jobs.

WILL THIS LOOPHOLE RESULT IN HIGHER SALES AND B & O TAXES?

The past record is clear. Tax preferences for special interests forced big increases in sales and business and occupation taxes during the recent recession. The damage to our economy of high rates and narrowing tax base is nationally recognized, and even featured in The Wall Street Journal. It could get even worse—if the Legislature raises taxes to avoid the $50 million cuts.

Rebuttal of Statement for

It isn't "fair" — and it doesn't make sense — to give the biggest tax break to the person who can afford to trade in last year's luxury car, or yacht, for this year's model, while keeping the same high sales tax on necessities like children's shoes and school supplies.

Initiative Measure 471 TO THE PEOPLE

NOTE: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by state law. The complete text of Initiative Measure 471 is contained on page 10.

Statement for

Initiative 471 does not change the abortion law. That law was passed by vote of the people in 1970. They wanted to give women the right of choice but did not expect to have to foot the bill!

RESPECT FOR MORAL BELIEFS

Out of respect for those who are steadfast in their belief that abortion is morally wrong, it is only fair that they are not forced to support what they are strongly opposed to.

A BETTER USE FOR YOUR MONEY

In the last two years, 2.6 million dollars was spent to abort over 8,000 unborn babies in this state. This money should be used instead to prevent and fight child abuse.

35 OTHER STATES DO NOT FUND WELFARE ABORTIONS

Passage of 471 would simply add Washington to the list of other states and the federal government which do not fund welfare abortions—excepting to save the life of the mother. The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled that medically unnecessary abortions need not be funded. We think it is time Washington gets out of the abortion business!

471 WILL NOT INCREASE WELFARE COSTS

Those who promote abortion say costs will go up on the basis that the poor are better "dead than fed." The Washington State House Social and Health Services Committee staff made a survey recently of states which have stopped funding welfare abortions. The survey found that there was no evi-

Official Ballot Title:

Shall public funding of abortions be prohibited except to prevent the death of the pregnant woman or her unborn child?

The law as it now exists:

Subject to limitations, state law permits the premature termination of pregnancies even though the purpose of the termination is to prevent the development and birth of a child. There is a state-funded program, for those who are eligible, to pay the costs of termination of such pregnancies.

dence that those states have experienced any increase in welfare costs.

471 would prevent the spending of tax dollars to fund welfare abortions. Medical services to save the life of the mother or her unborn child, in case she were in critical condition, would still be funded.

VOTE YES ON INITIATIVE 471

Rebuttal of Statement against

• YOU OPPONENTS have made FALSE statements against 471. You hope to confuse and panic the voters. That is dishonest and WRONG! • 471 does NOT prohibit abortions! • It does NOT prevent funding when a mother's life is endangered! • It does NOT raise welfare costs! • It is NOT extreme!

Teenage daughters of WEALTHY PARENTS also qualify for ABORTION FUNDING! YOU who refuse to love and care for your innocent babies, DON'T MAKE ME PAY FOR YOUR ABORTIONS!!!

MARGARET HURLEY, State Senator; ELLEN CRASWELL, State Senator; MIKE PADDEN, State Representative.

Advisory Committee: A. L. "SLIM" RASMUSSEN, State Senator; STEVE FUHRMAN, State Representative; ROGER VAN DYKEN, State Representative; STEVE LARGENT; JOHN HURLEY.

The effect of Initiative No. 471, if approved into law:

This initiative would not change the conditions under which pregnancies can legally be prematurely terminated. However, public funds could no longer be used by the State of Washington, its agencies or local governments to pay for or reimburse the costs of prematurely terminating a pregnancy unless the medical services involved are for the purpose of preventing the death of the pregnant woman or to protect the life of the unborn child.

Statement against

BEWARE OF INITIATIVE 471's BALLOT TITLE: IT DOES NOT TELL THE TRUTH—

Contrary to the official ballot title promise, approval of 471 would instantly prohibit all legally funded abortions in Washington State. It does not obligate the Legislature even to consider funding abortions when a pregnant woman's life could be lost.

471 IS TOO EXTREME—

471 immediately eliminates presently legal abortion funding for low-income women . . . • even when a pregnant woman's life is in danger; • even when a pregnant woman's health is threatened; • even when a woman's pregnancy is caused by rape; • even in cases of severe genetic defects; • yes, even when a young girl's pregnancy is caused by incest.

471 IS TOO EXPENSIVE—

471 is an extremist proposal for which all taxpayers would pay heavily. 471 prohibits state payment for safe legal abortions for low-income women. Last year, Washington State paid $1,281,202 for 4,067 legal abortions for low-income women. If 471 were law, and those same low-income women were forced to complete their pregnancies at taxpayers expense, the cost would be in excess of $8,500,000 for delivery alone.

471 IS UNJUST—

471 does not affect rich women's abortions, it ends medically safe abortions only for the poor. 471 would force only poor women to bear unwanted children they cannot provide for. 471 denies only to poor women the right to act according to their own religious beliefs.

Rebuttal of Statement for

• It's not true or realistic that taxpayers only need to support government expenditures with which they agree. • It's not true that abortion to save the life of the mother would be funded under 471. • It's not true that the state is in the "abortion business" when it funds both maternity care and abortion. • It's not true that the state expects no increase in welfare costs if 471 passes.

COMPLETE TEXT OF Initiative Measure 456

AN ACT Relating to state government; and creating new sections.
BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The people of the state of Washington declare that an emergency exists in the management of salmon and steelhead trout resources such that both are in great peril. An immediate resolution of this crisis is essential to perpetuating and enhancing these resources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The people of the state of Washington petition the United States Congress to immediately make the steelhead trout a national game fish protected under the Black Bass Act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The people of the state of Washington declare that conservation, enhancement, and proper utilization of the state's natural resources, including but not limited to lands, waters, timber, fish, and game are responsibilities of the state of Washington and shall remain within the express domain of the state of Washington.

While fully respecting private property rights, all resources in the state's domain shall be managed by the state alone such that conservation, enhancement, and proper utilization are the primary considerations. No citizen shall be denied equal access to and use of any resource on the basis of race, sex, origin, cultural heritage, or by and through any treaty based upon the same.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The people of the state of Washington declare that under the Indians Citizens Act of 1924, all Indians became citizens of the United States and subject to the Constitution and laws of the United States and state in which they reside. The people further declare that any special off-reservation legal rights or privileges of Indians established through treaties that are denied to other citizens were terminated by the 1924 enactment, and any denial of rights to any citizen based upon race, sex, origin, cultural heritage, or by and through any treaty based upon the same is unconstitutional.

No rights, privileges, or immunities shall be denied to any citizen upon the basis of race, sex, origin, cultural heritage, or by and through any treaty based upon the same.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The secretary of state shall transmit copies of this act to the president of the United States senate, the speaker of the United States house of representatives, and each member of congress.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

COMPLETE TEXT OF Initiative Measure 464

AN ACT Relating to sales taxation; amending section 82.08.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 55, Laws of 1983 1st ex.sess. and RCW 82.08.010; and creating a new section.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purpose of this initiative is to reduce the amount on which sales tax is paid by excluding the trade-in value of certain property from the amount taxable.

Sec. 2. Section 82.08.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 55, Laws of 1983 1st ex.sess. and RCW 82.08.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Selling price" means the consideration, whether money, credits, rights, or other property except trade-in property of like kind, expressed in the terms of money paid or delivered by a buyer to a seller ((-a+-)) without any deduction on account of the cost of tangible property sold, the cost of materials used, labor costs, interest, discount, delivery costs, taxes, or any other expenses whatsoever paid or accrued and without any deduction on account of losses; but shall not include the amount of cash discount actually taken by a buyer; and shall be subject to modification to the extent modification is provided for in RCW 82.08.080.

When tangible personal property is rented or leased under circumstances that the consideration paid does not represent a reasonable rental for the use of the articles so rented or leased, the "selling price" shall be determined as nearly as possible according to the value of such use at the places of use of similar products of like quality and character under such rules as the department of revenue may prescribe;

(2) "Seller" means every person, including the state and its departments and institutions, making sales at retail or retail sales to a buyer or consumer, whether as agent, broker, or principal, except "seller" does not mean the state and its departments and institutions when making sales to the state and its departments and institutions;

(3) "Buyer" and "consumer" include, without limiting the scope hereof, every individual, receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, trust, estate, firm, copartnership, joint venture, club, company, joint stock company, business trust, corporation, association, society, or any group of individuals acting as a unit, whether mutual, cooperative, fraternal, nonprofit, or otherwise, municipal corporation, quasi municipal corporation, and also the state, its departments and institutions and all political subdivisions thereof, irrespective of the nature of the activities engaged in or functions performed, and also the United States or any instrumentality thereof;

(4) The meaning attributed in chapter 82.04 RCW to the terms "tax year," "taxable year," "person," "company," "sale," "sale at retail," "retail sale," "sale at wholesale," "wholesale," "business," "engaging in business," "cash discount," "successor," "consumer," "in this state" and "within this state" shall apply equally to the provisions of this chapter.

COMPLETE TEXT OF Initiative Measure 471

AN ACT Relating to abortion; and adding a new section to chapter 74.09 RCW.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 74.09 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Public funds shall not be used by the state of Washington, its agencies, or political subdivisions to pay or otherwise reimburse, either directly or indirectly, any person, agency, or facility for the performance of any induced abortion: PROVIDED, that the state legislature may authorize and appropriate funds for otherwise eligible beneficiaries to be used for those medical services necessary to prevent the death of either a pregnant woman or her unborn child under circumstances where every reasonable effort is made to preserve the life of each.

THE OFFICE OF PRECINCT COMMITTEEMAN

In addition to the various state and county offices which will appear upon the general election ballot, most voters will have the opportunity to vote for the office of "precinct committeeman".

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

State law (RCW 29.42.040) provides that any person who is a registered voter and a member of a major political party may become a candidate for the office of precinct committeeman by filing a declaration of candidacy and paying a $1 filing fee to the county auditor. Since voters do not register by political party in Washington, a candidate declares himself or herself to be a Democrat or a Republican at the time he or she files for the office. The filing period for the office of precinct committeeman begins at the same time as the filing period for other partisan offices (the last Monday in July in even-numbered years), and lasts for three weeks, ending on the third Friday following that date.

ELECTION OF PRECINCT COMMITTEEMEN

Candidates for precinct committeeman do not appear on the primary ballot but rather are placed directly on the general election ballot, and the candidate receiving the most votes in his or her precinct for each political party is declared elected. State law (RCW 29.42.050) does provide, however, that to be declared elected, a candidate must receive at least 10% of the number of votes cast for the candidate of his or her party receiving the greatest number of votes in that precinct.

TERM OF OFFICE AND VACANCIES

The term of office for anyone elected to the office of precinct committeeman is two years, and commences upon the official canvass of election returns by the county canvassing board. Should a vacancy occur in the office (caused by death, disqualification, resignation, or failure to elect), the usual process is for the chairman of the party central committee to fill the vacancy by appointment. Appointments to fill vacancies cannot be made between the state general election and the organization meeting of the county central committee, which must be held prior to the second Saturday in January following the election of precinct committeemen.

DUTIES OF PRECINCT COMMITTEEMEN AS MEMBERS OF THE COUNTY AND STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEES

1. Each precinct committeeman is a member of the county central committee. The county central committee has the authority to fill vacancies on the party ticket for partisan county offices and for legislative offices in districts entirely within that county when no candidate files for such a position or when a candidate or nominee dies or is disqualified leaving no candidate of that party for such an office; they may also nominate persons for appointment to these offices if an incumbent of that party resigns.

2. The state central committee has the authority under state law (RCW 29.42.020) to:
  - Call caucuses and conventions.
  - Provide for the election of delegates to national nominating conventions.
  - Fill vacancies on the party ticket for any federal, state or legislative office which encompasses more than one county.
  - Nominate persons to fill vacancies in state or legislative offices caused by resignation or death of an incumbent of that party.
  - Provide for the nomination of presidential electors.
  - Perform other functions inherent in such an organization.

NON-STATUTORY DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF PRECINCT COMMITTEEMEN

Specific duties and responsibilities of a precinct committeeman are usually determined by either the county or state central committees. The following duties are commonly assigned to precinct committeemen by their party organization:

- Keep informed on current issues and candidates, study the party platform.
- Attend meetings of county committees and actively participate in fund-raising activities.
- Obtain lists of registered voters from the County Auditor's office.
- Canvass the precinct and become acquainted with the voters residing therein.
- Establish a record of eligible voters and party members within the precinct.
- Encourage voter registration within the precinct.
- Distribute party election materials during election campaigns.
- Recommend party members to work as precinct election officers.
- Encourage voters to get out and vote on election day.
- Encourage the use of absentee ballots.
- Hold precinct caucuses at certain selected times for the purpose of adopting resolutions and selecting delegates to the county conventions.

Individuals who are interested in serving as precinct committeemen should contact the chairman of the county central committee of their party or the state committee office of that party. Their addresses are as follows:

When I took office in 1981, America was in the worst economic mess since the Great Depression.

Years of government overspending and overtaxation were taking their toll. Productivity, industrial production and real wages were down. The only things going up were prices, taxes and the size of government. Double-digit inflation and increasing taxes reduced the reward for hard work, thrift and entrepreneurial risk taking.

In 1981, we offered a bold, new plan for economic recovery. The result has been the strongest economic recovery in over 30 years. We have achieved what the cynics said could never be done: real economic growth and lower inflation and unemployment rates.

Six million new jobs have been created in the last 20 months, and Americans are now looking to the eighties as a decade of growth and opportunity.

Of course, no issue is more important than keeping the peace and reducing the level of nuclear arms. By rebuilding America's defenses, we have made America safer, and we're hopeful the Soviets will join us in arms reduction agreements.

The last four years have been a real success story for America. Now we can look forward and offer the American people a vision of opportunity and progress based on a four-year record of success.

Back in 1976, the Democrats came up with a gimmick to rate the economy. They added the inflation and unemployment rates, and got what they called a "misery index." In 1976, it came to 12.6 percent. But in the 1980 election, they didn't mention the misery index.

That's because they drove the misery index up over 20 percent. In 1984, you probably won't hear our opposition mention the misery index either. That's because it's down to 11.6 percent — below where it was 11 years ago — and dropping.

America is moving forward into a decade of prosperity and opportunity for all Americans. We are on the edge of a new frontier in high technology as vast as the very frontier of space. We have regained optimism and faith in ourselves, our families and our nation.

Although we've accomplished much in the last four years, there is still much to be done.

Some people ask why I don't just retire and go to that ranch Nancy and I love so much. But that would mean quitting before the job is done, and I've never been a quitter.

I see four great goals that we can unite behind to keep America free, secure and at peace for the eighties. First, we must ensure steady economic growth without inflation; continue our program of tax relief and get a handle on government spending.

Second, we must develop space, America's next frontier, through the construction of a permanent manned space station, and the promotion of private sector investment in space.

Third, we must strengthen our traditional values of faith, family, work and neighborhood.

And finally, we must pursue a lasting and meaningful peace with the Soviet Union while helping develop stable democratic institutions around the world.

The future of the United States is at stake on November 6, 1984. On this election day, Americans will have the opportunity to choose between two different visions of that future.

Peace: Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro believe that they can freeze nuclear arms, reduce the number of weapons, and ensure that not one of them ever goes off.

We are a strong nation, and we will always defend our cherished freedom. But, in a world with 50,000 nuclear warheads, a President must work for peace. Instead, Ronald Reagan has dangerously escalated the arms race. He is the first President since the bomb went off not to negotiate an arms control agreement.

Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro will follow President Kennedy's example by challenging the Soviets with tough arms control proposals that increase our security and protect our future.

Economy: Our current President's tax cuts for the rich, and his blank check for the military, have caused the largest budget deficits in American history. Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro know that these deficits have created record-high real interest rates at home and an overvalued dollar abroad. As a result, America has lost its competitive edge in foreign trade markets.

Mondale and Ferraro understand the Northwest. They know that foreign trade is especially important to the Northwest economy, and have clearly stated how they will cut deficits and bring interest rates down.

Environment: Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro share the Northwest's concern for the environment. They are committed to cleaning up our polluted air and water and dangerous toxic waste dumps. Ronald Reagan has shown a complete disregard for the health of our environment.

Fairness: Americans want a President who serves all the people, not only the rich. Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro will lead us on a humane and decent course again.

Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro have a lifelong commitment to ensuring that our elderly are treated with respect and dignity. Ronald Reagan intends to make further cuts into the already meager provisions of Social Security and Medicare.

Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro believe that education is essential to America's economic strength, that equal educational opportunities must be provided for all.

Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro want an America in which our children will look forward to the years ahead of them. When you vote for President this November, think about the future.

The independent campaign of Dennis Serrette for President and Nancy Ross for Vice President carries forward the social vision for jobs, peace and justice fought for by Reverend Jesse Jackson in the democratic primaries. Actively backed by many of Jackson's key state and local supporters, it is reaching out to the millions of Jackson voters who saw democratic leaders in San Francisco ignore their demands for enforcement of the Voting Rights Act, for a break in diplomatic and commercial relations with apartheid South Africa, for a 25% slash in the awesome military budget, and for a renewal of the Democrats' former promises of a war on poverty.

Now on the ballot in 33 states, the "Rainbow Alliance" campaign is fueled by thousands of volunteers who are conducting a referendum with the use of "Pledge Cards," millions of which will be signed by November by people pledging their votes to Mr. Serrette. By signing a card, people are saying that they voted in the primaries not for Jackson the Democrat, but for Jackson the Independent leader who voiced their aspirations against the big business controlled party bosses.

Longstanding collusion between Democratic and Republican national leaders has resulted in massive slashes in social services, jobs and health care, while spending on nuclear weapons has mushroomed. A majority of Congressional Democrats voted on appropriations which have doubled the Pentagon's budget in the past four years and approved the placement of cruise and Pershing nuclear missiles on European soil. The Democratic Party also sanctioned the invasion of Grenada by U.S. Marines and the current massing of American troops in Central America as a threat to the socialist republic of Nicaragua and the people of El Salvador, who face daily brutalities at the hands of an American-supported military dictatorship. Behind the "lesser of two evils" public relations image of Walter Mondale and the Democrats, they have embraced the agenda of conservative right, Mondale's platform calls for a 5% increase in Reagan's own "Star Wars" military budget, guarantee no jobs programs at a time of mounting unemployment, and promises not to restore any significant funding to child nutrition programs, legal services to the poor, education, housing programs or welfare benefits.

Mr. Serrette is uniquely qualified to lead a campaign that will carry on after November towards the creation of a permanent third party movement for America's Blacks, Latinos, women, gay people, working and poor families. A cofounder of the Coalition of Black Trade Unionists, he served as Chairperson of the National Committee to Overturn the Bakke Decision and led a 20,000 strong March Against Racism in Boston in 1974 to protect Black school children being bussed to South Boston schools. In New York City, Mr. Serrette was Chairperson of the Coalition to Save Sydenham Hospital and was the first elected Vice President of Local 1101, Communications Workers of America. Also a founder of the South Africa Freedom Day Coalition, Mr. Serrette has spearheaded efforts to support liberation movements in southern Africa.

The central issue in U.S. politics today is Washington's drive toward a new Vietnam war in Central America and the Caribbean. This coming regional war — a war in defense of corporate profits and against workers and farmers fighting for the right to control their countries and their lives — has already begun. The CIA-financed attacks against Nicaragua, all out support to the murderous dictatorship in El Salvador, the blockade and war hysteria against Cuba, massive war "games" and naval "exercises" in the Caribbean and Honduras, the invasion and continuing occupation of Grenada — these are all aspects of this war. In addition, this war — begun under the Carter-Mondale administration — is completely bipartisan.

This is a war with two fronts, however. The second front is right here at home, and consists of all the attacks against our rights and living standards that have been taking place throughout the "takeback decade": union-busting and concession contracts, blows to the rights of Blacks and women, stepped-up deportations of undocumented workers, the driving of farmers from their land, and a vicious assault on democratic rights in general.

The principal message of our campaign is that all the problems facing us have a common source: the capitalist system. The same tiny class of corporate billionaires and bankers, using their government and their two political parties — the Democrats and Republicans — is waging this war at home and abroad. We cannot look to the Democrats or Republicans for change. Gains that working people won in the past were not the result of elections, but of organized struggles in our own interests. We need to replace the current government of big business with a government run and organized in the interests of workers and farmers. To fight for such a government we need our own political party, a labor party based on a fighting union movement that champions the struggles of workers, farmers, Blacks and women, and that leads the resistance to Washington's war drive.

We propose: Bring U.S. troops in Grenada and Central America home now! Stop the war against Nicaragua. End the blockade against Cuba. Cut all ties with the dictatorship in El Salvador. Unilateral U.S. nuclear disarmament. No draft. Stop union busting. No government interference in union affairs. Jobs for all. Shorten the work week with no cut in pay. With the billions now spent on war, launch a public works program to build schools, hospitals, roads and childcare centers to provide jobs at union wages. Stop racist attacks. Affirmative action, including quotas, in education and employment. Desegregate schools, including through busing. Stop the deportation of undocumented workers. Defend democratic rights. Stop government and employer attacks on constitutional liberties. Abolish the death penalty. Defend women's rights. For safe, legal abortion rights. Support the ERA. Stop farm foreclosures! For a moratorium on all debts. Extend low-interest credit for machinery, seed and fertilizer. Guarantee family farmers an income adequate to meet their costs of production and sustain a decent living.

In 1776, Thomas Jefferson wrote, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." These words summed up the motives and ideals of the American revolutionaries. David Bergland and Jim Lewis are saying the society can and should be run by these ideals. Individuals have the right to control their own lives, and must take responsibility for their actions. Government today is run according to the opposite principle. Individuals are treated as the property of the state and are taxed, regulated, and prevented from acting according to their own judgment. Peace and prosperity are threatened every day by bureaucratic meddling at home and overseas, whether the President is a Democrat or a Republican. Libertarians offer a real change: full respect for your independence and integrity as an individual, an end to government trespassing on your property, and security for all your peaceful and honest activities in your business, family life, church or temple. The dynamic Libertarian movement brings together people who see that economic and personal liberty are two sides of the same coin and who are willing to stand up for their beliefs.

Mr. Bergland, 49, was Editor-in-Chief of the Law Review at the University of Southern California, served as a law school professor, and has represented many clients against IRS oppression. He was a candidate for Vice-President in 1976.

Mr. Lewis, 50, a Connecticut businessman, is President of a public policy organization promoting free market solutions to local problems.

Let's look at some of the issues:

There was no permanent income tax before 1914, and the country prospered. Since then, the federal bureaucracy has been our major growth industry. Government waste, corruption, inefficiency, and failure are a result of financing programs via taxes — a process which robs our wallets while it removes any true measure of accomplishment and all incentive to improve productivity. Inflation is caused by the Federal Reserve Bank. Those on pensions and earning wages are the victims. We need to halt the printing of paper money and return to a dollar that's sound and honest.

Despite Reagan's 1980 promise to end draft registration, he has instead prosecuted and jailed young men who have not registered. The use of slaves to defend freedom is intolerable. The present U.S. military buildup is robbing Americans blind and threatening the destruction of the world. Instead, we must take active steps toward mutual arms reduction, including sensible steps on our own such as retirement of all U.S. land-based missiles. These missiles are simply tempting targets that invite an attack on our homeland. Our foreign policy must protect the liberty of the American people by guarding American territory from attack. Instead, the U.S. government is trying to act as the world's policeman. An estimated $229 billion (75% of Reagan's 1985 military budget) is devoted to meddling and entanglements overseas in Western Europe, the Far East, the Middle East, and Central America.

Over 50 Libertarians holding public offices across the country are proof that principle and practicality can mix, and that our candidates do live up to their promises and actually solve problems. A vote in 1984 for either the Republican incumbent or his Democratic challenger will simply tell these traditional politicians that you're pleased with what they've been doing to you for years. A vote for either is wasted.

Sonia Johnson is a feminist and peace activist, lecturer and author.

Her unique contribution to this year's political discussion is that feminism, far from being a "single issue," is a way of looking at all the issues, a perspective based upon the principles of nonviolence, cooperation and nurturance. She presents a widely-shared progressive perspective on the critical issues: drastic cuts in the military budget — including an immediate freeze of all manufacture and sale of arms and an end to intervention; an end to violence against women; genuine human rights for everyone — including jobs, education, housing and health care; decentralization of economic power; a healthful, nonnuclear environment for all species.

Dr. Johnson is the first alternative party candidate and the first woman in this country's history to receive primary matching funds from the federal government. On August 15, 1984, she filed a complaint with the Federal Communications Commission to protest exclusion of alternative candidates and their views from the nationally televised presidential debates.

An outspoken critic of Reagan's foreign policy, Sonia travelled to Honduras, Nicaragua and El Salvador in December 1983 as a member of a women's delegation. In Geneva, Switzerland in the Spring of 1984, she cofounded the Women's International Disarmament Alliance, a network which brings women together from many countries to plan unified action for peace. For many years, Sonia has participated in protests across the country for peace and equal rights. She was excommunicated from the Mormon Church in December 1979 for her outspoken support of the Equal Rights Amendment.

She received her doctorate from Rutgers University in 1965 and taught English and education at American and foreign universities. Her book From Housewife to Heretic, was published November 1981 by Doubleday. Dr. Johnson is 48 years old and lives in Arlington, Virginia with her children.

Richard Walton has been active in the Citizens Party — which is the official sister of the West German Green Party — since its early days.

Walton is best known for his books critical of American foreign policy. Perhaps the most widely known of these is Cold War and Counter-Revolution: The Foreign Policy of John F. Kennedy, published by Viking Press in 1972. It was the first book-length study critical of Kennedy from the left. It is widely used in college history and political science courses.

Walton has also written on political and social questions for such publications as the New York Times, The Nation, The New Republic, The Washington Post, Village Voice, Chicago Tribune, Newsday, The Saturday Review, and the Providence Journal. He was the principal United Nations correspondent for the Voice of America from 1962-67. Earlier, he was producer-host of VOA's "Report to Africa," and travelled widely through Africa interviewing leading African statesmen.

Walton received his Bachelor's degree from Brown University in 1951 and his Master's from Columbia Graduate School of Journalism in 1954. He is 56 years old and lives in Warwick, Rhode Island.

Local contact for the Citizens Party is Ellen Christensen, 145 North 77th Street, Seattle 98103.

Sonia Johnson and Dick Walton are endorsed by the Socialist Party of Washington.

Lyndon H.
LaROUCHE

Billy M.
DAVIS
Independent

Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr., an American System economist, is an independent Democratic candidate for the office of the President of the United States. He was a candidate for the 1980 U.S. presidential nomination of the Democratic Party, and is chairman emeritus of the Advisory Board of the National Democratic Policy Committee. He is also a founder and contributing editor of the international political intelligence newsweekly, the Executive Intelligence Review. Because of his monetary-reform proposals and his total opposition to neo-Malthusian doctrines, which he has described as "genocidal," he has become a target of bitter controversy.

Mr. LaRouche's running mate for the office of Vice President is Billy Davis. Mr. Davis is a family farmer from Laurel, Mississippi. A prominent farm leader, he received a law degree in 1966 and has taught history in junior high school.

The President of the United States must master these five deadly crises: 1. The Soviet drive to establish world domination by 1988; 2. A world-wide financial collapse; 3. A continuing collapse of agro-industrial output; 4. The eruption of a famine-level world-wide food shortage during 1985; 5. The accelerating erosion of those distinctive features of Judeo-Christian culture upon which Western Civilization is based. No solution for any of these crises can be found except as progress is accomplished in mastering all five. The LaRouche-Davis ticket proposes that we meet these crises with the following program:

1. Ending the strategic crisis: For the past seven years, Mr. LaRouche has promoted the crash development of defensive directed-energy beam weapons systems — the Strategic Defense Initiative. These defensive systems would be capable of destroying nuclear-armed missiles.

2. Preventing a financial crisis: LaRouche and Davis are calling for the return of our nation's credit-generating powers to the Congress, as specified in Article I, Sections 8 and 9 of the Constitution. This means federalizing the Federal Reserve System to create the Third National Bank of the United States.

This national bank would issue gold-reserve denominated currency notes through the private banking system, to be lent at interest rates of 2-4% to finance production of industrial goods and agricultural commodities.

LaRouche and Davis propose that the U.S. disassociate itself from the International Monetary Fund and aid in the reorganization of the unpayable debts of the developing sector through the creation of long-term, low-interest, gold-backed bonds. They characterize the IMF's austerity policies in the developing sector as illegal violations of national sovereignty and genocidal in intent and effect.

3. Ending the economic and agricultural crises: A massive infusion of low-interest credit to U.S. industry and agriculture through the reorganized banking system. If the debts of the developing sector are relieved, a huge market for American exports can be created overseas immediately, and unemployment can be ended here at home. Development of the U.S. and its neighbors, should proceed through investment in broad-scale Great Projects such as the second Panama Canal.

Vote for people before profits. Worried, angry about Reagan? You needn't feel powerless. We are the majority, and together we can turn our concern and anger into movements and actions that can turn our country around. There are solutions: A massive federal program to rebuild our cities. Enact a program of full employment; extend benefits for the full period of unemployment. In the public good, take over and manage industries like steel, machine building, auto, rubber, the energy complex of oil, coal and nuclear power. Establish a six-hour day with no cut in pay. Roll back and cap all prices, rents and interest rates. Eliminate taxes on family incomes under $30,000 a year. Make all racist and anti-Semitic practices criminal offenses. Establish verifiable affirmative action programs, with quotas, in every area of life. Enact no-interest government loans, free crop insurance and 100% parity for small family-size farms and bring an immediate halt to all foreclosures on family farms. Reverse and replace social security cuts, increase payments 25%; end all federal, state and city taxes on social security. Pass an emergency National Youth Act providing jobs, education and training for all youth. Pass the ERA and a law for equal pay for comparable work, and enact a federally funded child care program. Enact a $50 billion federal program to clean up pollution, and make the corporate polluters foot the bill. Pass a National Health Act. Enforce the Voting Rights Act, eliminate the double primary. Strengthen and enforce OSHA. Make all working people eligible for all social services.

Where will the money come from? Make the rich, the corporations and banks return the $750 billion tax swindle Reagan gave them since taking office. Close the tax loopholes of the rich and end the $120 billion interest payments on the national debt. End the nuclear madness of Reagan's policy of war and confrontation, save trillions for people's needs. The turnaround platform of Gus Hall, a founding organizer of the steelworkers' union, and Angela Davis, leading Afro-American activist and scholar, shows the way to victory over Reaganism and corporate superprofits — the fighting unity of the people. Gus Hall and Angela Davis hold that only a socialist United States can finally eliminate capitalism's war, poverty and racism. But we don't have to wait for socialism to curb the warmakers and monopolists — we must do it now. A vote for Hall and Davis is the vote with the most clout. Their program is a living answer to the dangerously insane anti-communism that Reagan has used to justify all his foreign and domestic policies. It is a vote to safeguard peace and turn our country around from policies of war, poverty and racism. Vote people before profits. Vote for Gus Hall and Angela Davis.

Larry Holmes was raised in Harlem and lives in New York City. Holmes, a GI resister inside the Army during the Vietnam war, participated in the first official Vietnam veteran's group to Nicaragua last year. In 1981, he was the Chairperson of a rally of 100,000 at the Pentagon against U.S. intervention in Central America.

Chicano activist Gloria LaRiva is a militant trade unionist and was a key leader in the 1983 Chicano Moratorium March in San Francisco. In 1982, she joined the Native occupation to keep California's only Native college open, and also helped build a march of 2,000 against the Nazis in Oroville, CA. Both Holmes and LaRiva supported the Rainbow Coalition and the Campaign for Jesse Jackson.

If you're for jobs or income for everyone, including youth, seniors, and the disabled, if you're for union rights, and an end to racism and inequality, if you're for no wars or interventions, if you're for cutting the Pentagon budget and expanding social services, if you're for full rights for women and no discrimination against lesbians and gays, then you're for Holmes and LaRiva.

Workers World Party stands for a socialist society, where the wealth is shared, not monopolized by a small clique of billionaires.

Workers World Party is for solidarity among all peoples and Nationalities. That means fighting racism, sexism, anti-semitism and discrimination.

Workers World Party is for building a unified movement against exploitation and union busting, against the bosses, bankers and military-industrial complex.

Workers World Party is for dismantling the military monster and living at peace with the world.

Make your vote count for what you want, not for Mondale's so-called "lesser evil."

The strongest vote against Reaganism is a vote for socialism and a multi-racial, struggle oriented working class party.

Holmes and LaRiva represent the interests of the poor and working people. But they are not campaigning to promise you anything, or like the Democrats and Republicans, to lie to you to get your vote. The most important part of their campaign is to remind you of what you know already — that the elections in this country never change anything.

Despite efforts by the government, the media and the candidates to convince you that you actually have a choice, there's not much difference between the Democrats and the Republicans. Big business runs and finances both the Democratic and Republican parties. Both have given bipartisan support to the cutbacks, to the biggest peacetime arms budget in history, and to the profit mad capitalist system that throws workers by the millions on the scrapheap.

Holmes and LaRiva reject this two-party trap. Workers and poor people need their own party, united in an on-going struggle to fundamentally transform society so that it serves their needs.

The newly organized Populist Party of the United States has nominated Bob Richards of Waco, Texas, winner of two Olympic gold medals and nationally known businessman and lecturer, as its presidential nominee, and Maureen Kennedy Salaman of San Francisco, California, president of the National Health Federation and renowned author and talk show moderator, as its vice presidential nominee.

These outstanding Americans bring to the voters of the United States an unequalled opportunity to change the course of history and bring to all the citizens an America-First administration whose policies will ensure more jobs, less taxation and more financial security than has been offered in the past fifty years.

Their populist platform consists of these five answers to critical issues facing the people of the United States at this time:

1. Repeal of the graduated income tax on individuals. The income tax is paid almost entirely by the middle class. The super rich pay very little of it. The personal income tax is not necessary to operate the government. In fact, the United States functioned well without a federal income tax for 125 years.

2. Abolition of the privately owned Federal Reserve system which manipulates interest rates to effectively stop home ownerships by young and old alike. Congress has surrendered this authority to the Federal Reserve and we have ever higher interest rates, inflation, and depression at the whim of the international bankers.

3. Enactment of tariff laws which will rebuild American industry and help maintain a high standard of living of our working men and women. There are two ways to cut the floor out from under the standard of living of American working men and women. One is to import cheap foreign labor to take American jobs; the other is to import the slave-wage product of foreign toil.

4. Restriction of immigration to protect the jobs of American workers. There are now an estimated 15 million illegal aliens in the U.S.

5. Restoration of the America-First tradition of noninvolvement in useless foreign wars which have cost many thousands of American lives and billions of tax dollars.

You can help accomplish these goals by casting your vote for the slate of electors in your state pledged to Bob Richards, President and Maureen Kennedy Salaman for Vice President.

United States Representative First Congressional District

John
MILLER
Republican

"I'm running for Congress because I care deeply about the issues facing our country and the Northwest: reducing the almost $200 billion a year federal deficit; cleaning up Puget Sound; restoring excellence to education; and maintaining a firm foreign policy. I want to do something about these issues for First Congressional District voters."

The First Congressional District needs an effective successor to Joel Pritchard. As a citizen activist, a State Assistant Attorney General, a Seattle City Council President, and a radio and television commentator, I have a record of listening to people, speaking out, and getting things done. I will be an effective voice for First District voters in Congress. My offices in Washington, D.C. and Seattle will always be available to help all the people of the First District with special problems." John Miller

John Miller, as Seattle City Council President, was credited with balancing a $100 million budget and keeping Seattle out of WPPSS plants 4 and 5. He served as Assistant State Attorney General and for three years was a commentator for KIRO Radio and TV. Miller is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Bucknell and holds both a Law degree and a Master's degree in Economics from Yale.

Brock
EVANS
Democrat

Campaign Address:
Brock Evans for Congress
P.O. Box 150
Mountlake Terrace, WA 98043
Telephone: (206) 367-4777

Brock Evans is running for Congress in the First District to accomplish these goals: 1. To protect the middle class from the federal deficits that are denying the average family the credit it needs to buy homes, to make major purchases, and to educate its children; 2. To end the threat of nuclear war by bringing about a mutually verifiable nuclear freeze; 3. To make education a value again; and, 4. To protect the environment and preserve the unique Northwest lifestyle.

Brock Evans is the only candidate of either party with hands-on experience in working with Congress. He was a legislative advocate for many years with the Audubon Society and the other major environmental groups. Brock Evans helped to pass much of the fundamental environmental legislation of our time — the Clean Air Act, the Clean Water Act, and the state Environmental Quality Act.

Brock Evans also helped to pass the Alaska Lands Act and the State Shorelines Management Act, to preserve the Alpine Lakes and the Washington Wilderness and Hell's Canyon areas, and to create the North Cascades National Park.

Because Brock Evans has been at work — for the First Congressional District, the state of Washington, and for the United States of America — your air and water are a little cleaner and much of your natural heritage has been preserved.

An attorney and author, Brock Evans is a graduate of Princeton and the University of Michigan Law School. He has been active in civic causes in the Seattle area for more than two decades, including helping to save Pike Place market and membership in the group that began the Seattle street tree planting program.

Mr. Evans is married, has two sons and lives in the Shoreline area of North King County.

Sixth Congressional District

Mike
LONERGAN
Republican

Campaign Address:
People for
Mike Lonergan
P.O. Box 404
Tacoma, WA 98401
Telephone: (206) 272-9989

Democrats, Republicans and Independents in Pierce and Kitsap Counties agree that it's time to elect a new Congressman. They can no longer support a professional politician who campaigns with half-truths and broken promises. How can they continue to trust a man who talks one way and votes another?

What a refreshing difference it will make to send Mike Lonergan to Congress! Everyone who meets Mike agrees: here's a guy who really listens, really cares, really understands. Somehow you get the feeling he respects you, your family, your job.

Mike Lonergan says, "You've got to stand for something, or you'll fall for anything. I stand for a balanced budget with no increase in taxes. We can do it by electing a Congress that hates waste and fraud as much as the American people do. It makes me sick to think of paying millions in phony cost-overruns to some big government contractor while denying benefits earned by thousands of deserving veterans right here in the Sixth District. And the saddest part is that our Congressman looks the other way because his campaign contributions come from those who profit from government waste."

Straight talk and common sense from a remarkable man with the talent, wisdom and desire to represent you with excellence! You'll hear a lot about "experience," "hard work," and "clout" from the incumbent. But what good is it if he's working against your best interests?

Mike Lonergan wants his children to grow up in a strong America, in a world at peace. He wants a healthy economy, free from over-regulation, to provide job opportunities for every citizen. He wants honest government that lives up to the ideals of the Constitution.

Mike Lonergan wants to work for you — and he'll never forget who's boss!

Norm
DICKS
Democrat

Norm Dicks has served the people of the Sixth Congressional District since his election to Congress in 1976. His experience on Capitol Hill, however, dates back to 1968, when he joined the staff of former Senator Warren G. Magnuson.

Norm serves on the House Appropriations Committee and three of its subcommittees which have a critical impact on the Puget Sound area and on the state of Washington: the Interior, Defense and Military Construction subcommittees. These assignments provide Norm with oversight responsibility for the budgets of the Defense Department and the Department of the Interior, both of which have major impacts on Washington State.

Concern for the unique environmental quality of the Pacific Northwest has marked Representative Dick's tenure in the Congress. He was the leading advocate for the inclusion of the Clearwater in the Washington Wilderness Bill and has staunchly opposed the Interior Department's policy of allowing mineral exploration on federal lands and in protected watershed areas. Norm Dicks has worked hard to make sure that harmful chemical wastes in the Pierce and Kitsap County areas are cleaned up through the Superfund program. In 1984, these efforts led to his selection as the Washington Environmental Council's Federal Public Official of the Year.

On national defense issues, Norm is a: leading proponent of the aggressive pursuit of arms control agreements; founder of the congressional Military Reform Caucus; and fighter against waste in the defense budget. Norm Dicks is a forceful advocate for defense concerns in Washington State — a state where defense expenditures total $6 to $7 billion annually.

Norm Dicks' efforts to attract federal incentive-type grants has produced jobs and stimulated economic development which has truly improved the quality of life in the Sixth Congressional District.

He is a native of Bremerton and a graduate of the University of Washington and the UW Law School.

United States Representative Sixth Congressional District

Dan BLACHLY
Libertarian

Campaign Address:
701 So. 15th, #2
Tacoma, WA 98405
Telephone: (206) 627-0486

Most of the people who supported Dan Blachly in the primary election were not Libertarians, but were supporting these stands: Stop the MX missile; Stop U.S. foreign intervention; End urban decay from military spending. As a Libertarian, Dan further says:

"The U.S. is mobilizing for nuclear war. Both sides are preparing to launch a preemptive first strike with weapons like the MX, the Trident II and other systems accurate enough to destroy the other side's missiles. Let's stop this madness by freezing further development, production and deployment of all nuclear weapons. In addition, we can reduce the threat without waiting for the Soviets. For example, the United States can dismantle all of its land based missiles, and invite the Soviets to do likewise. Our foreign entanglements are nuclear tripwires. Libertarians would remove all U.S. troops and weapons (like Pershing II and Cruise missiles) from foreign soil. Combined with our reduction in nuclear arms, we would be taking a giant step toward easing world tensions.

"The U.S. government must end all foreign intervention. Aid to nations like El Salvador, the Philippines, and other dictatorships that terrorize their own people, damages the honor of Americans.

"By not putting money into these weapons and foreign entanglements, we keep billions of dollars in the hands of individuals and communities, expanding job opportunities, savings and housing."

Consistent with this principle of noncoercion, Libertarians believe in private property and free enterprise economics. Vote for Dan Blachly. Vote for peace, freedom and prosperity.

"Libertarian solutions to all problems are based on applying the principle of noncoercion to all questions, encouraging cooperation between people and nations, rather than the threat of violence and war."

John
SPELLMAN
Republican

Good times are back from a bad recession. But not for all. I want to finish the job I began four years ago — putting Washington back to work.

We are moving strongly out of the recession with pioneering programs. The state's first Housing Finance Commission. The first industrial development bonds. The first tourism effort. The first wine marketing programs. The first centers for international marketing of forest products and agriculture. The first Tokyo office, and our first formal relationship with The People's Republic of China. The first Office of Women and Minority Business Enterprises.

We did it all for jobs today, and for prosperity tomorrow. We've laid the foundations for a generation of prosperity.

We are on course. We have made good progress. As a result of quiet and competent leadership, business is optimistic and 120,000 more people are working today than when I took office. But . . .

But there are still too many unemployed. It is my belief that the best welfare is a good job. We need more good jobs in forest products and fisheries especially, but across our state.

Agriculture and small business deserve more respect. They are the bedrock of our economy. The sales tax and B & O tax rates are too high. I plan to cut them to create jobs.

We must grow to create prosperity. But we must grow with grace, loving and protecting this wonderful place where many of us were born and where all our children will grow up.

Our children's future is also tied to education. It is fundamental to their and our economic future. I will propose my second Excellence in Education Act this January.

I ask for your vote on November 6. I try to be a progressive and an honorable man, a good Governor.

Booth
GARDNER
Democrat

Campaign Address:
People for Gardner
401 Pontius Avenue N.
Seattle, WA 98109
Telephone: (206) 223-1984

I can get our government working again, and our people back to work.

John Spellman has not done the job. He promised us no new taxes, and then signed into law the most regressive tax of all, a tax on food. He has done little to encourage economic development, yet suddenly, he is telling us that that's what he'd work for. He has given lip-service to protecting our environment.

Every month, there is a new horror story about how Spellman appointees have misspent our hard-earned tax dollars. Instead of using our taxes well, he has given us a top-heavy management.

I've done better.

At a time when Pierce County was almost $5 million in debt, I made government lean and efficient by streamlining procedures, weeding out duplication, training managers to perform better, freezing the salaries of the highest-paid officials, and restricting the use of county cars. Without raising taxes, we balanced the budget.

But this campaign is not about the past. It is about the future.

As Governor, I will help create new jobs by broadening our economic base. I've proposed a detailed eight-point plan to create new jobs, but the heart of the plan is this: We need a Governor who can get businesses to listen, who can talk its language, who can persuade new businesses to locate here and encourage "home-grown" new and innovative companies.

I believe that new jobs for Washington and protecting our beautiful state are not incompatible. Maintaining our good environment is just good economics, and I will take the necessary action to clean up Puget Sound, protect our inland waters, clean up toxic wastes and restore our fisheries.

A key to creating new jobs is maintaining and improving the quality of our schools. The Governor must be an activist for education.

Lieutenant Governor

Eleanor LEE
Republican

Campaign Address:
P.O. Box 1984
Seahurst, WA 98062
Telephone: (206) 246-8854

Since childhood, Eleanor Lee has been chosen by people to serve as their leader. Nearly 30 groups have asked her to serve as their chief presiding officer. She is also a successful businesswoman. Ten years ago, she was elected a State Representative and then State Senator.

Senator Eleanor Lee's fairness, intelligence and ability earned her leadership roles in the Legislature and the most powerful committee assignment available to the minority party — ranking member of the Senate Ways and Means Committee. Last session, she was the most successful Senate Republican lawmaker.

Senator Eleanor Lee was asked by her colleagues to run for Lieutenant Governor. They chose someone who could ably fulfill the requirements of the office — substituting for the governor, presiding over the Senate, serving on required committees and performing ombudsman duties.

However, the vast potential of the office has not been fully utilized for 50 years. Eleanor Lee says, "The office has been primarily ceremonial long enough. As the official next in line to the governor, the lieutenant governor should help solve this state's problems, as done in other states. It can be done with existing powers and budget, but it requires an experienced new person as lieutenant governor."

John A.
CHERBERG
Democrat

Campaign Address:
P.O. Box 9932
Seattle, WA 98109
Telephone: (206) 283-1281

During his 28 years in public office, John Cherberg has earned a reputation for outstanding integrity, ability, accomplishment, fairness and firmness.

Cherberg has acquired invaluable knowledge about state government as President of the Senate, Acting Governor 1,336 days, statutory member of the State Finance Committee, State Capitol Committee, Health Care Facilities Authority, Data Processing Authority and seven other committees.

Cherberg has used his knowledge wisely in his role as "ombudsman" for thousands of citizens who turned to him for help in solving their problems in workmen's compensation, industrial insurance, pensions, public assistance and in cutting "red tape."

The people whose business it is to know and report on state government have singled out John for praise:

"Cherberg's gavel has saved billions of dollars for the state." Jack Pyle, Tacoma News Tribune; "Cherberg is an official of impeccable integrity with broad experience in state government." Seattle Times; "Few are better informed on the inner workings of state government." Yakima Herald-Republic; "Cherberg earned and has maintained a reputation for fairness and impartiality as the senate's presiding officer." Adele Ferguson, Bremerton Sun; "A conservative with a heart." Washington Teamster.

John Cherberg's record truly merits your vote for his re-election as Lieutenant Governor.

Secretary of State

Ralph
MUNRO
Republican

Campaign Address:
Citizens for Ralph Munro
907 Western Avenue
Seattle, WA 98104
Telephone: (206) 467-8683

Ralph Munro has demonstrated leadership and creativity as Secretary of State over the past four years. Munro introduced legislation to end "exit polling," which enabled TV networks to project election results from interviews conducted inside polling places.

Munro has made tremendous improvements to coordinate the work of his office with the Business License Center, thereby improving the handling of corporate and non-profit registrations and the tens of thousands of annual renewals.

Munro has introduced legislation dealing with clearer ballot titles and accurate reporting of campaign contributions, among many others. The voters pamphlet has been distributed earlier, and Braille and tape versions have provided complete voter information to handicapped people for the first time.

"One of our greatest accomplishments," says Munro, "is that we have proven that voting district boundaries can be drawn by an independent redistricting commission instead of being a recurrent political football in the Legislature. The constitutional amendment approved by voters is the most significant change in Washington's political system in the past four years."

Re-electing Ralph Munro means four more years of responsible, hardworking leadership. Endorsements by newspapers, business and labor organizations across Washington confirm the importance of returning Ralph Munro as our Secretary of State.

John
McKEE
Democrat

John McKee, age 51, has lived in the state of Washington his entire life except for 6 years active duty in United States Army. He and his wife Margret have 5 children: Pat, Mary, Elizabeth, Therese and Jody. He attended Public and Private Schools. Has been employed 23 years as Public Affairs Consultant to various organizations. U.S. Army 6 years, Hon. Discharge.

Previous Political Experience includes various background as a consultant on state and local affairs. Has appeared before numerous state and county commissions, as well as representing numerous groups.

He is affiliated as a member in good standing in: Eagles, Moose Lodge, American Legion, VFW, various local civic and community clubs.

His platform and aims for Office are: The Secretary of State Office is a service oriented office and should be open to all citizens of the State during normal business hours.

The present incumbent closes the office between 12-1 o'clock and does not allow calls to some divisions after 11:30 in the morning, making it very difficult for some residents of the State to get information. This should be changed!!

State Treasurer

William B. (Bill) PILKEY Republican

Campaign Address:
P.O. Box 5666
Olympia, WA 98503
Telephone: (206) 754-9704

Twenty years in office are too long for anyone. If elected, I would serve twelve years.

The current treasurer gets most of his campaign money from the big city banks — about half from out-of-state. This is a conflict of interest. We want a treasurer who represents us, not big banks. I will take no money from out-of-state banks.

The treasurer's long-term investment record was so poor the legislature took this job away from him. He caused state government to lose its credit rating. This cost taxpayers $200 million. The treasurer let state government borrow from pension funds to solve his cash flow problems. This cost us $200 million. He didn't warn us about WPPSS.

I fought for fiscal responsibility as a government watchdog for 18 years. As Washington Research Council former president and legislative financial consultant, I have a proven record of concern for our state.

We must stop passing the buck for uncontrolled government spending, taxes and pension costs to our children. I have the experience to get the job done.

I will work to: improve state's credit rating, require legislature to fund pensions, improve investment return on workers' compensation trust funds, fight higher taxes, encourage long-range economic planning.

Robert S. O'BRIEN Democrat

Campaign Address:
P.O. Box 1963
Olympia, WA 98507

As a public treasurer for many years, Robert S. O'Brien has established an unblemished record of integrity. Nearly $50 million passes through the State Treasurer's Office daily, and these funds have been handled wisely and well. In addition, O'Brien's record of investing the state's funds earned the taxpayers a record $370 million over the past five years alone.

Treasurer O'Brien believes in investing first within our own state's financial community. This constitutes a major effort to provide funds to stimulate our state's economy. His success in managing investment returns enables the state to stretch its revenue further and, ultimately, to ask that much less from taxpayers.

O'Brien's record of success in investing state dollars, promoting concepts of efficiency, and dealing with the investment community has earned him an outstanding reputation in both state and national financial communities. Treasury officials in more than two dozen states have adopted O'Brien's policies and techniques, ensuring high interest earnings while guaranteeing integrity and safety of state funds.

O'Brien has served as President of the Washington County Treasurers' Association and the Association of Elected County Officials, and as President of the National Association of State Auditors, Comptrollers and Treasurers, and the Western State Treasurers' Association.

Mack Barnette is the only candidate with the necessary professional training and experience for reliable implementing of budgetary restraint.

Mack Barnette, a Certified Public Accountant since 1964, has 11 years comptroller experience in commercial banking, 5 years treasury work in insurance, 11 years comptroller/treasurer/director experience in consumer finance. Mack now owns and manages his accounting firm, established for 8 years. Mack Barnette is the only Certified Public Accountant in the race and has over 30 years experience in finance, accounting, and comptrolling.

Barnette's qualifications are emphasized, because the State Treasurer's office is in dire need of state-of-the-art monitoring of a skilled, fiscally disciplining professional. He sides with irate taxpayers in not accepting the incumbent's association with the WPPSS bonds debacle, a faltering State Treasury, and runaway budgets.

Mack Barnette is not only capable of instituting sound financial management of the State Treasury, but also he has the skills to do the job. He is the only candidate with both a solid commitment to taxpayers' relief and the technical accounting-comptrolling experience.

For professional integrity you can trust, elect Barnette.

State Auditor

Bob
KEENE
Republican

Bob Keene has worked nineteen years in accounting. As a Certified Public Accountant, he commands a working knowledge of business and public finance, with two degrees in accounting from Washington State University. Bob was awarded the bronze star for excellence in auditing and accounting in Vietnam.

The 1980's have been an economic disaster for Washington State which demands that the State Auditor take an active role as our first line of defense against waste, fraud, and abuse.

Since 1980, our electric bills have increased 250%. WPPSS spent approximately $10 billion, yet only one nuclear power plant is operating. WNP-2 cost 672% of original estimates, and you and I are footing the bill. The State Auditor has the responsibility to refer the abuse of our money to the Attorney General, but the incumbent has failed. In 1979 the State Auditor stated that the bondholders of WNP-4 and 5 had security, but the security was dismissed in court for being unconstitutional.

As State Auditor, Bob Keene will work to save Washington from bankruptcy. He will put strict controls on state funds. Asotin, Benton, and Kitsap Counties have had money missing: Bob will find it. Bob will work to restore Washington's good credit rating. It's time for a change!!!

Robert V. (Bob)
GRAHAM
Democrat

Campaign Address:
Graham for State
Auditor Committee
P.O. Box 1955
Olympia, WA 98507
Telephone: (206) 491-2253

Bob Graham's outstanding service as auditor provides Washington voters a window into government operations. His professional, evenhanded administration of the office has been recognized by the press:

"The office monitors the spending of all state and local offices, and Graham is known for calling things as he sees them, regardless of whether the office being audited is held by a Democrat or Republican." (Robert Cummings, Olympia Correspondent)

His broad experience in the governmental finance field has earned him the rating "Certified Internal Auditor" and national recognition by his peers. The U.S. General Accounting Office has declared the Washington State Auditor's office among the top ten in the nation. His work in developing accounting systems won Mr. Graham an appointment to the National Council on Governmental Accounting and he was twice elected as chairman of that prestigious body.

Beyond technical expertise, the State Auditor must have leadership ability. The National Association of Government Accountants awarded Bob Graham their "Distinguished Leadership Award" and he has been nominated by a federal agency for yet another national leadership award.

Bob's dedicated public service career warrants his re-election, in recognition of "a record of outstanding service" to the citizens of Washington.

Attorney General

Kenneth O. EIKENBERRY Republican

Campaign Address:
Re-Elect Ken Eikenberry
Box 24591 T/A
Seattle, WA 98124
Telephone: (206) 587-0777

Attorney General Ken Eikenberry's record is impressive and is testimony to his leadership, independence, professionalism and integrity.

Vigorous, effective enforcement of Consumer Protection laws produced over $13,000,000 for Washington's people and public offices in three years, a 300% increase over the previous three years. Ken promoted important consumer legislation and won the resources to champion the consumer's interest in power and telephone rates.

Under Ken Eikenberry, the Attorney General's Office continues to maintain its independence, fairness, professionalism, and non-political approach to the law. "What's right, what is fair, and what is the law," is Ken's officewide goal.

Ken Eikenberry made history by winning authority to actively investigate and prosecute crimes. This authority, coupled with Ken's 25 years of legal experience, including having been an FBI agent and King County Deputy Prosecutor, gives Ken Eikenberry and the Attorney General's Office the tools to substantially help law enforcement throughout the state.

The victims of crime must be protected. Ken Eikenberry continues to lead the effort for victims rights, particularly in domestic violence and child abuse cases.

Ken Eikenberry has done a great job as AG. That's why former Attorney General, Senator Slade Gorton, enthusiastically endorses Ken's re-election.

The Phil Talmadge Campaign
P.O. Box 248
Seattle, WA 98111
Telephone: (206) 682-2424

Phil Talmadge knows that we depend on the Attorney General to protect the quality of life we enjoy in Washington.

When companies are caught dumping hazardous wastes, we want the Attorney General to enforce our environmental laws. When contractors rip us off on major public projects like WPPSS, we want the Attorney General to prosecute them.

Fighting crime, protecting consumers, representing ratepayers, enforcing laws against discrimination, keeping the workplace safe — these are only a few of the critical responsibilities of the Attorney General.

Phil Talmadge's record of accomplishment as a lawyer and legislator makes him uniquely qualified to be Attorney General.

A tireless and effective State Senator, Phil has sponsored 80 bills which have been enacted into law — a truly remarkable achievement.

The issues he has worked on are wide-ranging: Puget Sound water quality, the right of workers and communities to know about exposure to dangerous, toxic materials, and criminal sentencing reform, to name a few.

Phil Talmadge is a partner in a large Seattle law firm. He has successfully argued numerous cases for individuals and businesses before state and federal appellate courts.

Phil and his wife Darlene have four children and are lifelong residents of West Seattle.

Republican

Campaign Address:
100 Colman Building
811 First Avenue
Seattle, WA 98104
Telephone: (206) 343-0500

Incumbent Land Commissioner Brian Boyle delivered on his 1980 promise to bring new leadership to the Department of Natural Resources.

Boyle, 43, said his background as a former Cowlitz County Commissioner and metals industry engineer and manager helped him direct state land management to serve the public interest.

"Two of my most important accomplishments were to make state land management more responsive to the public and to protect public land and water from environmental damage," Boyle said.

Boyle has diversified state land investments in oil and gas, agriculture and urban properties to assure more jobs, property tax relief, and income for schools, universities and counties.

In the next four years, Boyle's public and private sector experience is critical to protect the state's natural resources while producing land income so higher taxes will not be needed to build and run schools in the future.

The state also must help our timber and wood products industry. "This is a critical crossroad for our most important industry's recovery," he said, "and it needs continuity and leadership."

Boyle's policies will ensure future generations will gain the same benefits of recreation, jobs, environment and income that we have received from state lands.

Campaign Address:

Seattle, WA 98102
Telephone: (206) 322-0006

I am running as an Independent for Land Commissioner as part of a slate of candidates headed up by Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr., Independent, U.S. presidential candidate.

The state land revenues are an economic victim of Paul Adolph Volcker's usuriously high interest rates. The result of this policy has been a wave of bankruptcies and layoffs in timber, farming, mining, transportation and industry. There are no meaningful local correctives that will see us achieve more than a slowdown of economic collapse. Therefore, any candidate for office who does not address the national and international origins of these problems is only accepting the "which arm or leg next" economics of Volcker and his controllers in international banking. My tenure in office would use the institution of the Washington State Department of Natural Resources as a vehicle for demanding a policy for 2-4% interest rate loans to be issued solely for rebuilding America's productive powers.

It is a great irony that revenues generated from our state lands fund education and simultaneously grow marijuana which damages our students' brain functions. The capabilities of the Landsat satellite to spot even small plots of marijuana would be used to assure the end of this practice.

Commissioner of Public Lands

NOTE: At the time of publication, the unofficial vote totals for Gene Wiegman and Gene Chase were too close to determine the democratic nominee for the office of Commissioner of Public Lands. Therefore, both candidates' statements and photographs appear below, although only the winner of the primary, as determined by the official returns, will appear on your ballot.

Gene WIEGMAN
Democrat

Almost without notice by the public, the number two industry in Washington State — the forest products industry — is rapidly being devastated by a combination of factors, i.e., skyrocketing industrial insurance rates, huge contractual obligations incurred in 1978-79 & 80 to cut public timber, Canadian imports, and rail freight rate increases.

Dozens of smaller timber related companies have either closed down, taken bankruptcy, or drastically cut back. Hundreds of employees have already lost their jobs, and thousands of layoffs are pending.

The impact of the crisis will have a tragic effect on the funding of school construction, and those county services dependent on monies from the Trust Fund.

Immediate solutions must be forthcoming if the remaining small and middle sized wood products companies are to survive! The problem is monumental and can only be solved by coordinated efforts of industry, labor, consumers, and government. The Lands Commissioner must take the leadership responsibility and "in-action" replaced by "action"! The time for promises, talking, and stalling ran out two years ago!

As former Commissioner of Employment Security, and before that as the President of Pacific Lutheran University, Gene Wiegman, 54, has a proven record as an administrator, leader, and chief executive officer.

P.O. Box 158
Lakewood, WA 98259
Telephone: (206) 435-4060

My major concern is the current mismanagement of the Common School Trust Fund and the cash flow problems that are resulting from the policies of the current commissioner

In 1980, the School Trust Fund received over $77 million; in 1983, the fund received only $35 million. Most of the reduction in funds is related to the defaults on state timber sales augmented by inaction by the Commissioner of Public Lands.

Having been an Arlington School Board Director for the last six years, serving as a Legislative Representative for the Washington State School Director's Association, and having 20 years experience in the forest products industry, including six years with the Department of Natural Resources in forest engineering and commercial land management, qualifies me to take leadership in the needs of the trust lands which is one of the main responsibilities of the Commissioner.

Activities include: Washington State School Director's Legislative Representative, 1978-present; Arlington School Board, President 1979-1982, member 1978 — present; Mt. Baker-Snoqualmie Timber Committee, Chairman, 1980-1983; Snohomish County Fire District, Commissioner, Chairman 1978-1983; Industrial Forestry — Department of Natural Resources, member 1975-present; North Snohomish County Rotary, member 1980-1983; Cascade Hospital Advisory Board, 1979-present.

Insurance Commissioner

Richard G. (Dick)
MARQUARDT
Republican

Campaign Address:
P.O. Box 4175
Tumwater, WA 98501

Every year over 135,000 people contact my office seeking information and help with their insurance problems.

Several thousand others have attended our free insurance information clinics held mostly in shopping malls all over the state, or have been aided by our volunteer Senior Health Insurance Benefits Advisors (SHIBA) started by my office and now recognized nationally. We also regulate and audit the 1300 insurance companies doing business in the state to make sure they are solvent and able to pay any claims you may have. We test and license the 23,000 agents and brokers selling insurance here and collect approximately $60 million per year in fees and taxes. This money goes directly into the state's general fund to help defray the cost of running the state. In addition, as State Fire Marshal, my office has two major responsibilities: 1. inspection of hotels, nursing homes, hospitals, day care centers, etc., for safety purposes and 2. conducting arson investigation.

Our staff is committed to helping people with their insurance problems. There is much yet to be done, particularly in the areas of insisting that insurance policies become more readable and in keeping health care costs down. I ask for your continued support.

James E. (Jim)
HOFFMAN
Democrat

Consumers of Washington are entitled to a fresh and vigorous Insurance Commissioner who is sensitive and responsive to the needs of its citizens.

James Hoffman is the superior candidate needed to resolve consumer issues and others plaguing an insurance-confused public. His campaign slogan is "People Are My Priority" and he has "experience . . . where it counts."

As a career employee for nearly 19 years with the State Insurance Commissioners' office he served with Commissioners, William Sullivan, Lee Kueckelhan, Karl Herrmann, and incumbent Dick Marquardt. A veteran insurance investigator, he worked as a Trust Fund Examiner on Hospital/Medical/Surgical programs and Pension/Profit Sharing plans. James was a Claims Analyst Deputy in both Seattle and Spokane branch offices. Later as an Insurance Company Examiner, he investigated insurance operations both within and outside the state. He also served as the insurance Commissioner's Personal Examiner and Trouble Shooter. He has been an outspoken Consumer Advocate (Democrat) during his nearly 19 year span with the State Insurance Commissioners' office. Since leaving the department involuntarily, he has worked constantly to improve consumer relations for policyholders both within and outside the State of Washington.

Re-Elect Brouillet
Citizens Committee
217 9th Avenue North
Seattle, WA 98104
Telephone: (206) 682-6086

Dr. Frank "Buster" Brouillet, incumbent Superintendent of Public Instruction, is the state's leading advocate for school quality. He has pushed for increased state funding for basic education. During his tenure state funding has been increased from under 50% to 78% of local school district budgets.

Brouillet has been an advocate of school excellence. Graduation requirements have been raised twice since he took office.

Buster has received national recognition as an advocate for children with special learning problems. Under his leadership vocational enrollments have doubled and new programs have been developed for bilingual, remedial, migrant, gifted and handicapped students.

Brouillet has been endorsed by the Washington Labor Council; AFL-CIO; the Federation of State Employees; and the Washington Education Association. Buster's work as a member of the state's Board of Natural Resources won him the Washington Environmental Council's Environmental Public Official of the Year Award. His work won him an honorary doctoral degree from Seattle University. His counterparts in the 50 states elected him the president of their nationwide council last November.

Shirley
GALLOWAY
Nonpartisan

Shirley Galloway has devoted 24 years to education, children and youth. She is admired for her convictions, respected for her courage and trustworthy as a leader. She always provides strong leadership.

Served in the Legislature for 6 years (vice-chair and current chair of House Education Committee; co-chair Pupil Transportation and Child Abuse Committees; 4 years on Revenue Committee; Actuary Committee). She is on State Council to Prevent Child Abuse.

Galloway knows how to get things done through planning, setting measurable goals and working with groups in an even-handed manner. Her pro-active approach to problem solving avoids crisis and provides stability. Her knowledge and skills established major community events; curriculum council; aided in school district dispute settlements; consultant on remedial education; started youth agency cooperative programs; mentor to gifted children; headed efforts to improve reading programs; church education committee chair, ecumenical youth organizer.

She and her husband Wayne have raised 5 children. Galloway went back to school earning an A.A. & S., Clark College, 1978; B.A., The Evergreen State College, 1980; school finance training, WSU; extensive training in negotiations and dispute settlement, American University and American Arbitration Association.

Galloway has strong convictions that the student's educational success must be top priority in all decisions regarding public education.

State Supreme Court

Position 1

William C.
GOODLOE
Nonpartisan

Judge William C. Goodloe has been a Superior Court Judge for 12 years. He has the endorsement of over 60 of his fellow judges. As a practicing attorney, he has 24 years of extensive trial work in all courts.

Judge Goodloe served eight years as a Washington State Senator. He is a Navy veteran who served in combat in all theaters of World War II. He has been a faculty advisor for the National Judicial College and a consultant on several judicial publications. As a public service, he has given over 300 color-slide lectures on "Great Americans".

The Seattle Post Intelligencer said, "Goodloe states and pursues his own convictions without fear of repercussions. Goodloe is one of the most courageous and independent thinkers in the Legislature." (Comments while he served in the State Senate)

Judges cannot campaign on issues, seek party endorsements or make commitments which amount to prejudgments. A judge cannot rule until the evidence has come in and the law has been presented. Judge Goodloe will serve the people of the state of Washington with impartiality, integrity and ability.

Campaign Address:
Phelps Gose,
Treasurer
E. 220 Wellesley
Spokane, WA 99207
Telephone: (509) 487-2774

Experienced Appellate Judge — only candidate with Appellate Judge experience, Judge Green has served 15 years on the Court of Appeals, Division III, twice as Chief Judge. He needs no on-the-job training. Experienced lawyer — 19 years private and public law practice. A skilled trial lawyer, his practice included the entire spectrum of law. He knows the impact of appellate decisions on lawyers, clients, and law enforcement agencies. Judge Green brought the lawyer's viewpoint to the first Court of Appeals.

Experienced prosecutor — a former U.S. District Attorney, he knows the practicalities of criminal law. Professor — 6 years teaching Appellate Practice at Gonzaga Law School.

Practical and consistent judge — rules of law should be fair and practical — the kind people can live with. They should be consistently followed so lawyers can reasonably predict for their clients the consequences of given conduct. When law becomes impractical due to permanent change in society's needs, the law should change to meet those needs.

Involved — Chairman, Committee on Judicial Ethics; member, Pattern Jury Instruction Committee; Judicial Administration Section, American Bar Association; active church member; Rotarian; Mason. No. 1 in lawyer's poll.

Elect experience!

State Supreme Court Position 3

---

Keith CALLOW
Nonpartisan

Experience: Judge of the Court of Appeals for 12 years; former Superior Court Judge; served as Deputy Prosecutor, law clerk for the Supreme Court and as Assistant Attorney General. Private law practice for 14 years. As Presiding Chief Judge of Court of Appeals, co-founded a national organization dedicated to the improvement of the administration of courts.

Recognition: The Brandeis-Judge of the Year-Award ("For Excellence Characterized by Reasoned Fairness and Judicial Leadership") from the Trial Lawyers Association; the Governor's Award ("For Outstanding Public Service in Accident Prevention") from Evergreen Safety Council and Thanks Badge (for service to Girl Scouting) from the Totem Girl Scout Council. Serves on Executive Board of the Boy Scouts. Bar poll overwhelmingly supports election.

Position: Experience and practical common sense are essential for a Supreme Court Justice, as is understanding the problems of each county. The criminal law should work so the guilty are convicted, the innocent acquitted, so that law enforcement officers can keep us safe by performing their work effectively and yet protect our freedom and privacy. Each person should be able to make the most of their abilities and each individual is entitled to respect.

Edward HEAVEY
Nonpartisan

Edward Heavey has a distinguished record of service. As attorney, District Court and Superior Court Judge Pro Tempore, as well as Superior Court Arbitrator, he has acquired the breadth and depth of experience needed to be an outstanding Supreme Court Justice.

As Member of the King County Council, Heavey authored these major reforms: the first County Campaign Disclosure Ordinance, the first Code of Ethics of County Officials and Employees, the first Public Defender System in the state, and the first County-City Ombudsman program.

Heavey has served on the Washington State Bar Association's Civil Rights and Legislative Committees, and the Environmental Law and Real Property and Probate Section. He's been an Associate Member of the Urban Land Institute and member of the Environmental Defense Fund.

Edward Heavey is endorsed by the Washington Education Association, the Washington State Women's Political Caucus, Washington State Labor Council and Washington State Employees.

Edward Heavey says a Supreme Court Justice must not only comprehend legal complexities and render just decisions, but should work actively for judicial reform. "Our courts must be more concerned with protecting citizens, and less with protecting criminals. As State Supreme Court Justice, I'll be tough — but I'll also be fair."

Superior Court
Pierce County
Department 6

Superior Court Commissioner Rosanne Buckner worked as a trial attorney until appointed Pierce County Superior Court Commissioner. Rosanne has demonstrated her commitment to fairness and hard work while hearing cases involving probate, divorce, juvenile and mental illness law. Rosanne also serves as an adjunct professor at the University of Puget Sound Law School.

Commissioner Buckner believes judges should be active, involved members of the community. She serves on the boards of directors of the YWCA, YMCA, United Way, and Multiple Sclerosis Society. She is a member of the Governor's Juvenile Justice Committee, and in 1983, was chosen a Time Magazine Newsmaker of Tomorrow.

Commissioner Buckner is endorsed by the Washington State Business and Professional Women's PAC, Washington Women Lawyers of Pierce County, Pierce County Superior Court Judge Donald H. Thompson, and Tacoma Police Union No. 6 IUPA AFL-CIO.

Commissioner Buckner is concerned about the increase of violent crime in Pierce County. She is aware of the new laws which are tough on crime and protect the rights of crime victims. Commissioner Buckner will uphold these laws and be a fair, hardworking and dedicated Superior Court Judge.

Judge Filis Otto of Roy finished law school at age twenty. She then clerked for State Supreme Court Justice William Steinert. Later, she started a private practice in Pierce County where she was one of only two women attorneys. She practiced for seventeen years.

Then, in 1966, she was elected District Court Judge. She has been there for seventeen years, too, having been re-elected four times.

Her judicial record is both public and clear: it reflects a strong, independent and honest judge. Not just one with experience and integrity, but one dedicated to "judicial excellence."

"I'm a 'people's judge,'" she says, "neither prosecution nor defense oriented." Being a "people's judge" means isolating herself to maintain impartiality and not submitting to special interest pressure groups. Once a case is argued, her decisions come down fast; neither litigant nor attorney need wait months to know her court's decision.

Retiring incumbent Superior Court Judge, Floyd V. Hicks, endorses her. Vote for Judge Filis Otto on November 6th.

State Senator Twenty-third Legislative District

Ellen CRASWELL
Republican

Ellen Craswell would make a terrible politician. For one thing she means what she says. She doesn't make wild charges or easy promises. When she says she will work to hold down taxes, you can trust her to keep her promise.

Ellen Craswell has been a leader in the state in efforts to limit taxes and control state spending. She co-chaired the signature campaign for state tax limitation (Initiative 62), and later co-chaired that measure's successful ballot campaign. She passed legislation which brought state property taxes under the same 106% lid which covers local government property taxes. She gained state-wide attention in 1981 by refusing to yield to her Republican caucus demands that she break her campaign promise and vote for a tax increase. Last year, she led the Senate debate which stopped a proposed state income tax.

Olympia doesn't need any more politicians. It needs more senators like Ellen Craswell who mean what they say.

1984 is a crucial election year for the citizens of Kitsap County. Important problems from economic development, education, the environment and human rights are awaiting solutions.

The incumbent Senator from the 23rd District has compiled a voting record so negative that it is one of the worst in the entire Senate. I don't think we can afford that kind of obstructionism.

I want to be a Senator who will provide a constructive approach towards economic development, an approach similar to that endorsed by Washington State's Energy Commission on Economic Development.

I want to be a Senator who will seek positive solutions to bettering our educational system, not one who mouths worn-out platitudes and then votes against programs for educational excellence.

We must be concerned about the quality of our environment as our state copes with increasing population growth. Can we afford representation by an incumbent who voted to eliminate the Department of Ecology? I think not.

My record in county government reflects my commitment to achievement and accountability. My office was twice recognized by the National Association of Counties with achievement awards for excellence.

My commitment to you is to pursue that record of accountability as your State Senator.

Schools, ferry transportation, and government spending are the priorities Gary Rinehart believes the Legislature must address.

As father of two school-age children, Gary is acutely aware of the need for improving the state's education system.

Because he is a Bainbridge Island resident, he knows the vital role ferries play in the district's life. Through his Silverdale business in the housing industry, he knows what the impact of ever higher taxes have on young couples trying to buy first homes and the elderly trying to keep theirs.

A community leader for many years, Carolyn is a Trustee of Olympic Community College, member of the Chamber of Commerce, Business and Professional Women (BPW/USA), League of Women Voters, and Washington Women United. Carolyn serves on the Commerce and Economic Development, Transportation, and Higher Education Committees. Carolyn's priorities for the next Legislature are: economic expansion, funding stability and excellence in education, child abuse protection, senior citizen needs, water quality, and increased government efficiency.

Karen

Democrats and Republicans repeatedly promise to lower taxes and restore lost freedoms. Instead, the opposite occurs: Individuals and businesses are treated as state property, to be taxed, regulated, and controlled. Libertarians would reverse this trend by limiting government's role to protecting lives and property. We would slash taxes and spending, while enhancing free enterprise by eliminating regulations, subsidies, controls, licenses, permits, etc. Karen Allard says, "The solution to our social and economic problems is greater individual liberty and less government interference." Representative Smitherman's office sent out more letters and responded to more constituent requests than any other Democratic Representative, except the Speaker. You may never have a problem, but it's nice knowing that, if you do, someone will listen and care. Bill faced the budget crisis inherited from past legislatures by developing legislation, which was passed, to tie state-funded programs to actual achievement, eliminating excessive and costly administration. Working together is Bill's way of getting things done. Vote for a Representative whose only special interest is serving the people who elected him.

Scott
SIGMON
Republican

It is time to get state government under control. My opponent helped raise taxes to the highest level in our state's history. She voted to allow the Human Rights Commission to meddle in the affairs of the church. Church and state must be kept separate. My opponent voted to allow violent crime offenders to walk our streets and for work lease programs outside prison walls where criminals really belong. She voted yes to the gas tax, yes for an income tax, and no to repealing the food tax four months early.

I have helped people all during my brief life. I have stood in welfare offices for hours and know that the system has to be changed. I have taken food to families with children and no money. I have seen people leave this state because of no jobs and because of high taxes. This all has got to be changed.

I care and I am running for the reason that all people should be represented. A vote for Scott Sigmon is a vote for the people and a vote you will not regret.

Senator Lorraine Wojahn is proud of her special interests . . . the people of the 27th district . . . proof that working together works.

"Finding the solutions to difficult problems begins in our own community. That's the real secret of democracy. It works because people who care are willing to spend time sharing ideas. One of the most important things a legislator can do is encourage that process. After 16 years in the Legislature, I most admire men and women in public office who freely admit they don't know all the answers. Instead, they listen and study. They are the true moderates who reject the extreme and the quick fix. Most of all they are fair and appreciate the opportunity to serve."

Senator Wojahn was born in Tacoma. She has worked for many years as a community volunteer and was a consumer specialist for the Washington State Labor Council prior to her election to the House of Representatives in 1969. Much of the legislation she has sponsored and passed was developed because of a constituent request.

State Representative Twenty-seventh Legislative District

Especially his help with working men and women, the elderly and retired. In aiding injured workmen through Labor and Industries, P. J. is a legend.

Born in Washington, he graduated from Lincoln High School and WSU. Four of his six children are college graduates, one from West Point.

Steve KIRBY
Democrat

Campaign Address:
People For
Steve Kirby
5623 South Oakes
Tacoma, WA 98409
Telephone: (206) 474-1134

As a Tacoma City Councilman, Steve Kirby has called for limits on administrative salaries, opposed City Light rate increases, voted against the Storm Sewer Tax, fought against neon "art" at the Dome, called for an investigation into WPPSS, worked to reduce City Light rates for low income senior citizens, and sponsored numerous public projects.

Steve Kirby will put the same energy into issues facing the 29th District as he did Tacoma's

We must create jobs for the unemployed, get tough on crime, improve our educational system, and reduce consumer taxes.

Elect the candidate who can make things happen — Steve Kirby.

Brian EBERSOLE
Democrat

Campaign Address:
4029 So. G Street
Tacoma, WA 98408
Telephone: (206) 472-9414

Brian Ebersole is building a reputation as one of the most effective lawmakers in the House. Of the sixteen bills Brian introduced in 1983 and 1984, nine became law. That's a record few freshmen legislators can match.

Brian's accomplishments include legislation to stop the early release of violent criminals; create a state commission to provide low-interest housing loans; protect Tacoma's drinking water from toxic pollution; and, prevent catastrophes like WPPSS from happening again. Hard work is Brian's trademark. The result is a better place to work and live. Let's keep Brian Ebersole in Olympia working for us.

R. H. (Rob)
WOTTON
Republican

Campaign Address:
P.O. Box 606
Shelton, WA 98584
Telephone: (206) 426-6201 or
(206) 426-8679

Rob Wotton understands our need for new leadership in state government. The old idea of "business-as-usual" has led to greater burdens on the taxpayers and left problems, like high unemployment, unsolved.

The time is now to limit government growth in taxation, spending, and regulation. We need employment security to encourage economic growth for a stable state economy. Rob Wotton has a workable approach for attracting new industries and creating more permanent job opportunities.

A student at the University of Puget Sound, Rob Wotton presently serves on the City of Shelton Centennial Committee and as an Assistant Scoutmaster.

Doug
SAYAN
Democrat

Campaign Address:
E. 221 Shore Drive
Grapeview, WA 98546
Telephone: (206) 426-7440

Doug Sayan, a native of Western Washington, is completing his first term as 35th District Representative. He is assistant majority whip and serves on the Ways and Means, Labor, State Government, and Natural Resources Committees. He also serves on the Western States Forest Practices Task Force and the Judicial Administration Commission.

Doug is retired from over thirty years in business, government, and education. He is a veteran, a member of numerous civic organizations, and a University of Washington graduate where he earned a masters degree in Business and Education.

He is married with three grown children and three grandchildren.

Wesley (Wes)
JOHNSON
Republican

Campaign Address:
Rt. 5, Box 222
Shelton, WA 98584
Telephone: (206) 426-4039

Wes Johnson has 27 years experience in education, administration and small business. He has worked as a logger, farmer and Christmas tree grower.

Wes is a strong advocate of a common sense approach to government. He will work to hold down taxes, ensure responsible spending, and increase job opportunities by encouraging new industry and small business growth.

Johnson graduated from Seattle Pacific University and earned a Master's degree from Arizona State University. Born and raised in a local pioneer family, married 34 years with 4 children, Wes pledges to apply his broad experience to represent you well.

Max VEKICH
Democrat

Campaign Address:
P.O. Box E
Cosmopolis, WA 98537
Telephone: (206) 532-0222

Seeking re-election to the State House is Max Vekich, 30, Grays Harbor longshoreman.

Vekich marked his freshman term by being selected Vice Chairman of the powerful State Government Committee, by saving timber industry jobs and by stimulating housing starts through the State Housing Finance Commissions. Vekich fought for fairness for consumers and voted for the best senior citizen legislation in state history.

Vekich devotes his energy to helping constituents. Says Max, "I was elected because I'm accessible and because I'm a hard worker. I'm proud of my accomplishments for the district and I'm eager to continue as your representative."

How to Obtain an Absentee Ballot

Any registered voter who cannot vote in person may apply to the county auditor or department of elections for an absentee ballot. Any signed request with the necessary information will be honored. For your convenience, an application form is reproduced below. The addresses of the auditors or departments of elections are also listed below. In order to be certain that an absentee ballot request is authentic, the election laws require that the signature on the application be verified by comparison with the signature on the voter's permanent registration record. For this reason, if a husband and wife both wish to vote by absentee ballot, both must sign the application form or separate, signed requests should be submitted. In order to be counted, an absentee ballot must be voted and postmarked no later than the day of the election. If you intend to vote an absentee ballot, make your request as soon as possible to allow sufficient time for an exchange of correspondence with the county auditor or department of elections. Absentee ballot requests may be presented in person at the office of the county auditor or department of elections up until the day of the election. No absentee ballots may be issued on the day of the election, except to a voter who is confined to a hospital on election day and was admitted no earlier than five days before the election. A member of the family or an authorized messenger may pick up and return the voter's absentee ballot. If you need such a ballot, contact the hospital administrator, county auditor or department of elections.
